VISTA Girls

Two Begin Work In County

By PAUL YOUNG
LISBON — Uncle Sam last week gave two pretty college girls his VISTA pin and sent them to work in Columbiana County.

A one-year engagement with Volunteers in Service to America began Monday for Ruthann Sutton of Buffton, Ind., and Susan Sperry of Milwaukee, Wis., both 20.

They will work as a team among low-income families in East Liverpool and Wellsville. VISTA is a federal organization often described as the domestic Peace Corps and is a division of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Both girls are interested in social service and intend to return to college after their year of duty.

Ruthann is a student at Richmond Professional Institute, Richmond, Va., formerly a branch of William and Mary College. She attended Purdue University, West Lafayette, Ind., for 1½ years before transferring to RPI. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlen G. Sutton.

Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sperry, had one year at the college of St. Teresa, Winona, Minn., and one year at Marquette University, Milwaukee. Her father is a product engineer and designs electrical components for missiles.

When assignments were read to the 60 VISTA graduates last week, Ruthann and Susan heard their sponsor, particularly Lewis and Ann Overturf, extension agent for home economics.

The girls proudly wear their gold VISTA pins issued last week when they completed six weeks of training at Northern Michigan University at Marquette on Lake Superior. Their field training was in Michigan's upper peninsula, where they shared the life of very poor families.

JOE PITTMAN, county extension agent, welcomed the girls yesterday at the extension office here. They will have a week's orientation here before going on duty. They were guests last night at the county 4-H rally at the fairgrounds.

Robert Lewis, county agent for 4-H, applied for VISTA personnel last fall in letters to Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Ohio's 18th District and to the Peace Corps. The Community Action Committee of Columbiana County, Inc., also helped obtain the young workers.

Lewis said he believes the roads are the first VISTA's assigned to a non-metropolitan area of Ohio. They will work under the direction of the cooperative extension service —

Matter Stirs Controversy

Salineville Councilmen, Resigned Chief To Confer

SALINEVILLE — The possible reconsideration by Bard Dietzel of his resignation as police chief and a debate over his statement concerning young people's activities marked a meeting of Council Monday night.

Mayor Stanley Fitch read a written resignation submitted by Dietzel, of Louisville, who quit the post Saturday after serving six days.

In a statement to The Review Saturday, Dietzel said he was resigning because of the extensive hours required by one officer to serve the community and referred to community attitudes on law enforcement.

Fitch reported Dietzel would like to meet Council to discuss the various police problems, indicating the former police officer would reconsider his action.

A meeting was scheduled Wednesday night at 7:30 at the fire station between Council members and Dietzel. Councilman Dwayne Felton voted against holding such a meeting.

James Miller, Columbiana County juvenile officer and former Salineville police chief, said he believed Dietzel "should retract" the statement he made to the newspaper concerning beer drinking by young people.

Miller said he had been a resident of Salineville for 25 years, had two daughters and through his experience as an officer was convinced Dietzel's statement was unfounded. He added a number of young people "are upset" about the statement.

In other action, Council referred various complaints to the street committee.

Mayor Fitch reported on the group insurance plan being studied for village employees. He said reports on data are awaited from three firms before a meeting is held by Council with the Cemetery Board and Trustees of Public Affairs.

The mayor also said a representative of the Madison Engineering Co. which conducted a survey for a sewage disposal plant for the village in 1957-58, said the village remains obligated for payment of some of the work.

Council has agreed to take part in a Columbiana County

Vorster New Premier Of South Africa

Justice Minister Named To Succeed Slain Verwoerd

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Justice Minister Balthazar Vorster was chosen today to become South Africa's seventh prime minister. He succeeds Hendrik Verwoerd, who was stabbed to death by an assassin a week ago.

Vorster was elected unanimously as leader of the ruling Nationalist party at a party caucus. His only real contender, Transport Minister Ben Schoeman, withdrew. As Nationalist leader, Vorster automatically becomes prime minister.

"I promise you that as far as it is humanly possible I will strive for the security of South Africa," Vorster told a crowd outside Parliament after his election. "As far as it please God Almighty to allow man to work out his own future and decide on his own destiny, the destiny of South Africa will be decided by ourselves."

The party's unanimous choice, obviating a vote between contending candidates, was seen as indication of their resolve to choose a strongman leader, resolute in pursuing its apartheid (race segregation) policies without deviating from Verwoerd's race line.

Schoeman told the meeting that after serious consideration he had decided not to accept nomination as party leader.

As the only other candidate, Vorster was unanimously elected, thus preserving a facade of party unity and strength.

Vorster will now be called on by state President Charles Swart to form a government, which is expected to make its first appearance before Parliament Wednesday.

Vorster, 50, now regards the 13th as his lucky number. He was elected to the premiership on the 13th of September. He was born December 13, 1915. He is the 13th child in his family. This is his 13th year in Parliament and as justice minister he was 13th in the Cabinet seniority.

Span Breaks Under Truck At Salineville

2 Firemen Unhurt As Tanker Falls In Creek At West End

SALINEVILLE — Two village firemen escaped injury Monday night when the volunteer department's tanker truck broke through the flooring of an old wooden bridge over a creek in the West End while answering a false fire alarm call.

Fire Chief Tony Brandonio was driving the 8-year-old tanker truck, loaded with 1,000 gallons of water, and Fred Wilson was riding on the rear of the truck when the flooring of the span gave way and the rig's rear wheels slipped to the shallow run 10 feet below.

The fire alarm was made by a man on a telephone at 10:05 who said his name was Beadnell and his home was ablaze.

Firemen took the new high-pressure fog truck and the older tanker to the West End and down the road to the Ernest Beadnell residence.

The new truck, driven by Lloyd Meister, crossed the bridge, but those on the truck, including Jim Merriner, 17, said there was a loud "crack" as the truck went over.

The old span gave way under the heavy weight of the tanker and its load of water, causing about $500 damage to the body of the truck which was pulled out by a wrecker crew about midnight. The water was drained from the tank to facilitate the removal.

Repairs were made to the truck and it was returned to service in a short time, although body work still has to be done, firemen said.

The Ernest Beadnell family, when firemen arrived, said they had no fire and had not summoned the department.

In an unusual coincidence, Mayor Stanley Fitch had reported to Council earlier in the eve-

Pickets Cite Teacher Bias During March

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP) — Civil rights marchers protested against alleged racial discrimination in the hiring of teachers and employees Monday in the nearby Freedom Area School district and in the Uniontown School District, Fayette County.

About 50 pickets marched in front of the Freedom Area High School for two hours.

They charged racial discrimination in hiring and also in selection of cheerleaders and majorettes.

The group was headed by Matthew Moore, chairman of the United Negro Protest Committee of Pittsburgh, and Willie Burney, president of the Freedom Area Citizens' Committee.

Moore said they would return daily until the school board answers a list of demands submitted last week.

Later Monday, Moore joined members of the Brownsville — Uniontown branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in presenting a series of recommendations to the Uniontown School Board. The complaints and recommendations were essentially the same at both schools.

Biggest Assault Of War U.S. Bombers Hit North Viet Again

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Waves of American bombers pounded North Viet Nam Monday in the biggest aerial assault of the war, the U.S. command announced today.

It was the second day in a row that U.S. planes mounted record raids, and pilots claimed inflicting damage on four surface-to-air missile sites and blowing up two Soviet-made missiles.

American airmen flew 170 missions in all. This was one mission below the record set on Sunday but a U.S. military spokesman said the number of sorties (individual strikes) exceeded Sunday's by one.

The heavy assault involved between 400 and 500 individual strikes.

Ground action continued to lag. U.S. military headquarters reported no significant action. South Vietnamese headquarters reported two brisk engagements but none of large scale.

The air blows against the North Monday cost the American raiders one plane, a U.S. spokesman said. An Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down 45 miles northwest of Vinh and the pilot is missing.

During the forays, Air Force pilots hit at a missile site 30 miles northwest of Dong Hoi.

Pilots reported hitting two missiles. One, they said, went off into the air and exploded with a large orange fireball.

$12,092 Will Be Sought

Wellsville To Ask Grant For Educational TV Setup

The Wellsville Board of Education Monday night voted to apply for a Title I federal grant in the amount of $12,092 for the installation of educational television, primarily in the elementary grades.

The program calls for the use of programs from WQED at Pittsburgh.

Television will be installed in each room at Garfield, MacDonald, McKinley, Fairview and the Immaculate Conception Parochial Schools if the project is approved. In the high school and junior high building, three rooms will be wired for television, including the visual education room. One set will be placed in a senior high room for experimental evaluation in English and reading.

The proposal calls for utilization of science and citizenship programs in the elementary level. The Pittsburgh station will be utilized for the programming,

'Rights' Bill Passage Seen Dim For 1966

Violence And Open Housing Stand By Government Cited

WASHINGTON (AP) — Violence in the streets and the administration's refusal to back down on open housing threaten to bury any chance that Congress will pass civil rights legislation this year.

The Senate resumes perfunctory debate on the House-passed bill today, preliminary to a test vote Wednesday when the measure may be laid to rest.

Although Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., the bill's sponsor, said "it just does not make good sense" to kill the bill because of racial demonstrations and riots, most of his colleagues blame such disturbances for the lack of enthusiasm for the measure.

President Johnson said Monday "we will do everything we can" to obtain passage of the bill, but conceded at a news conference "we have some problems in the Senate which appear quite serious."

Johnson said much depends on whether Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen will drop his opposition to the bill's controversial open housing provision.

"I am hopeful we can find some way to get this support," he said of Dirksen. Johnson said he had talked with the GOP leader, but did not say when nor

Judge Sets Oct. 18 For Sheppard's Trial

CLEVELAND (AP) — Presiding Judge Roy F. McMahon of Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court set the start of the Samuel H. Sheppard murder trial today for 9:15 a.m. on Oct. 18.

The judge did not designate a trial judge.

Sheppard's defense attorneys said at an arraignment last Thursday that they intended to file a motion this week for a change of venue, but the motion has not yet been filed.

Astronaut Outside For 35 Minutes

Had Trouble With 30-Foot Tether On Opening Hatch

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Astronaut Richard F. Gordon Jr. cut short a space walk today and hurried back to the safety of the Gemini 11 cabin when "he got so hot and sweaty he couldn't see."

Gordon, husky, 36-year-old Navy lieutenant commander, remained outside only 35 minutes of the planned 115-minute excursion.

It was the third straight time that an American astronaut cut short a space stroll because of troubles.

Command pilot Charles Conrad Jr. flashed the word to a tracking station in the Indian Ocean that Gordon was back inside the spacecraft and that the cabin was repressurized.

"Listen," he said. "I just brought Dick back in. He just got so hot and sweaty he couldn't see."

"We know how it is," flight controllers on the ground radioed. "When it gets where he can't see, you've got to close the lid."

Gordon had trouble organizing his 30-foot tether after opening the hatch and it apparently put a heavy work load on him.

Conrad had to hold onto the space-walker's legs to prevent him from floating out before he was ready.

"I'm breathing hard. I'm pooped," Gordon reported.

Once outside, Gordon moved over to an Agena satellite attached to the nose of Gemini 11. The astronauts had caught and docked with the Agena in record time after their launching Monday from Cape Kennedy.

"Ride it cowboy," Conrad told him, and then reported to the ground: "He's riding it like a cowboy."

Gordon rested for several minutes as he sat astride the 26-foot target rocket.

Before calling off the stroll, he accomplished a task vital to a high-flying experiment planned Wednesday.

He unstowed one end of a 100-foot cord stored under the Agena docking collar. He attached the loose end to a ruler-like docking bar on the Gemini nose. The bulk of the line remained coiled in a stowage area on the Agena, the other end attached to the target satellite.

Conrad and Gordon plan Wednesday to disconnect from the Agena and pull the 100-foot line taut between the two vehicles to see if this is an effective, fuel-saving means of flying formation in space.

The short walk was reminiscent of the Gemini 9 flight during which astronaut Eugene A. Cernan overworked and had his helmet visor fog up, then freeze.

Jurors 'On Schedule' In Probe Of Charges

LISBON — The Columbiana County Grand Jury is keeping pace with the timetable set by Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis and may be ready to report Wednesday.

The final duty before submitting the report to Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court will be to inspect the County Jail.

Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan said he will take the jury through the jail either Wednesday afternoon or Thursday morning, but has not been advised exactly.

Bettis and Asst. Prosecutor James D. Primm Jr. originally had 14 witnesses scheduled to appear in six cases Wednesday. Jury business moved swiftly Tuesday, however, and the prosecutor's office was attempting to move some of Wednesday's cases forward one day.

Following Survey

Chester Council Acts On Parking

An ordinance providing for parking restrictions after completion of a survey of problems in Chester was approved on first reading by Chester Council at a meeting Monday night.

One-side parking would be established on any street, alley or way which the survey would determine is needed. The police and fire departments would assist the street department in the survey.

In other action, Council awarded a $1,280 contract to Albert Kell, Chester contractor, for the repair and rebuilding of the roof of the City Hall.

COUNCILMAN Robert Kincaid reported a panel had been damaged on the fire station door and Clerk Donald Hood was requested to determine if the damages are covered by the insurance policy for the building.

Various traffic problems near the Fox Nursing Home were discussed by Jed Wilson, who asked Council to have "No Parking" signs repositioned, erection of "Quiet Zone" signs and enforcement of speed restrictions.

Wilson said he will assist in the work and payment of the special signs. He said the speeding is a problem because some of the residents of the home walk outside in good weather and are in danger of being struck by cars.

The street department is to investigate the problem and the signs were authorized.

COUNCIL rescinded a previous action to pay for the home telephone of the mayor during his term. It was pointed out the payment was not permitted in previous years by the West Virginia auditor's office even though the mayor receives many calls in connection with his duties.

Council boosted the salary of Street Commissioner Lester Bishop from $4,600 to $4,900 a year, retroactive to Aug. 1.

Councilman Percy Willison, head of the street committee, said the crew is working in various sections of the city.

Bills totaling $4,988 were paid, including $2,196 for the new street machine. Clerk Hood reported receipts of $155.

Annual Building Fund Fete Gets Under Way At Church

The annual building fund benefit bazaar sponsored by Midland's Presentation Catholic Church will get under way today.

A roast beef dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p. m. at the lyceum, with the grounds open at 6.

Featured will be children's rides and various games and other entertainment for children and adults.

All booths will be manned by men of the parish.

Bake, needlework and fancy-work sales will be conducted. A refreshments stand will be sponsored.

A new attraction this year is a gaily-decorated outdoor restaurant patio.

A local instrumental group will provide music throughout the evening.

The Rev. Stephen J. Burdis, pastor of the church, is overseer of the event, the sixth in the current series of building fund bazaars. General chairman is the Rev. John Sabovic, assistant pastor.

Committee chairmen include: Angelo Migliore, grounds; Jesse Presutti, supply; Confraternity of Christian Mothers, baked goods and needlework, with Mrs. John Kovarik, bake oven, and Mrs. James D'Angelo, needlework; Presentation Women's Guild, with Mrs. Anthony DiCiccio, president; beef and chicken dinners; Catholic Daughters of America, with Mrs. Sullivan Tonti, refreshment stand; Catholic Youth Organization and Sal Tonti, president, decorations and waitresses; Augustine Maroni and Augustine Matteo and workers, electric; Ralph Cilli and crew, carpentry; Mrs. Nick Stevenson, trading stamps; Mrs. John Giordano and Mrs. Amedeo Ulizao, pizza and hot sausage; Emeric Davis, booth personnel, and John Boyle, custodian, coordinator.

Fr. Sabovic extended special thanks to: Sister Jeanne Mary, principal, and the children of Presentation School who contributed items for the Country Store; the merchants of the community who made generous donations; and to community residents who donated trading stamps.

Area Couples Attend 'Miss America' Event

Four district couples have returned from Atlantic City, where they attended the annual "Miss America" pageant as guests of Benny Smith, guest dancer and choreographer of the event.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tice of Irondale, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carr of Hillcrest, near Wellsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Trout and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rowlings, all of Hammondsville.

All are friends of Smith, a native of Wellsville, who now teaches dancing in San Francisco. Prior to the trip to the East Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Tice visited at Springfield and Dayton.

Air force pilots also claimed damaging a missile site 31 miles northeast of Thanh Hoa. In the meantime, carrier-based Navy pilots attacked two other areas 25 miles north of the port city.

In other developments, the U.S. military command issued orders to limit the number of American servicemen in downtown Saigon. Under the new order only a third of the men in any unit may receive passes allowing them to be out of their billets after working hours, and they must be off the streets by 11 p.m.

The Viet Cong claimed today they had "annihilated" nearly 600 South Vietnamese government troops in an ambush near Phyl My last Thursday. Hanoi's Viet Nam news agency reported the Viet Cong statement in a broadcast monitored in Tokyo.

Man Under 'Cleanup' Order Warned Of Fine Of $50 Daily

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today imposed two $50 fines on a man accused of allowing "offal and filth" to collect around a home which he owns and of "neglecting and refusing" to comply with a deputy state fire marshal's order to tear down or repair the structure.

But the judge suspended imposition of the fines until Sept. 27 to allow the defendant, Fred Rayl of 246 W. 4th St., to renew his efforts to clean up the premises at the rear of 1457 Bates St.

In both instances, the judge warned Rayl, he can be fined $50 a day for each day the alleged violations continue.

It was Rayl's second appearance before the judge on the charges filed by Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne and Ben Weber, a Health Department sanitarian. At his arraignment on Sept. 2, he promised a cleanup of the trash and litter allegedly scattered on the property, receiving a continuance until today.

VanDyne's affidavit alleges that Rayl allowed "offal, filth and other noxious substances" to be collected around the premises and to remain there.

VanDyne and Rayl, facing the judge today, disagreed on the extent of the cleanup at the property.

"I hired the job done and it wasn't completed," Rayl said.

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, who represented the city, commented that the city "is not interested in collecting money in the form of a fine."

"Our primary purpose is to see that the city is kept clean," he commented.

As the case concluded, the judge suspended imposition of the two $50 fines. But he told Rayl if the cleanup order is not completed by Sept. 27 he will be required to pay the fines. In addition, the judge said, Rayl will be liable to additional fines of $50 per day for each day that the condition continues.

and 20 minutes of TV teaching would be used in the elementary grades each week and one hour and 20 minutes in the junior high level.

The principals have agreed educational television would provide a valuable addition in the continuing effort to provide a quality education for the students. John Mackov, MacDonald principal, has determined that approximately 75 per cent of the material in WQED's course of study is directly related to the Wellsville elementary courses in science.

The budget estimates show $1,368 for supervision, $8,000 for 44 television sets and dollies, $380 for installation, $780 for materials and $1,564 to provide for the fee of $1 per student.

East Liverpool's CATV will run the cable into each building and install outlets in each room. The firm also will provide necessary materials at cost to the schools. The district then would be responsible for stringing the cable from the service entrance into each room, it was explained.

Supt. Lowell Myers pointed out all costs, including installation and the student fees, have been figured in the application for a federal grant.

PTA Plans Meeting At Salineville School

SALINEVILLE — The Parent-Teacher Association will hold its first meeting of the new term Thursday at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Supt. Thomas Leek will discuss the educational needs of the district. James Hanley, principal, will introduce the teachers.

Mrs. Sue Russell, president, will conduct business.

Quote, Unquote And No Quote

One of the troublesome problems in the communications industry has erupted into a squabble that will impair the usefulness of the U.S. commissioner of education, Harold Howe II.

An indirect quotation putting him in a bad light in the segregationist South is being used against him by critics of educational integration.

It undoubtedly will be used against him, as well, in the race-sensitive North. The irony of the extensive damage done to him is his strong denial that he ever said what was ascribed to him as an indirect quotation.

What he actually said in a speech early last May was that he would provide construction funds to break up segregated schools "if he had his way." The abstracted report of this speech, seized by critics and reprinted in The Congressional Record, made Commissioner Howe sound as if he intended to build schools for the "primary purpose of social and economic integration." Nothing was said about "if he had his way."

He declares the words were put into his mouth—and into direct quotes—by the interviewer. He knows his denial never will catch up to the misrepresentation and that he has fallen victim to a particularly hurtful and mischievous practice. But he is not knuckling under to his enemies.

The issue is the quotation marks. Southerners using an indirect quotation as if it were a direct quotation are blandly substituting the words of an interviewer for the words of the interviewee. It is a familiar practice, but it cannot be excused by frequency of repetition.

Growing And Growing

In a little more than a year the Mill Creek Valley Historical Association has made tremendous strides.

As of last week, its membership had reached 690. Not bad for a comparatively new organization.

Its progress should be encouraging to other new groups which still may be experiencing "growing pains."

Not Ready For It Yet

Recriminations will be exploding like popcorn if the Senate decides the United States is not ready for an open-housing law.

But along with the recriminations there might be some bursts of understanding about the way a constitutional democracy works—the way it is supposed to work.

Its lawmakers are supposed to reflect more or less accurately the state of popular opinion. They are supposed to put into effect the wishes of their constituents.

On the other hand, they are supposed to guard against putting into effect anything that goes contrary to the wishes of their constituents. And in all things and in all ways, legislators are expected to distinguish between the wishes of majorities and minorities.

There is a strong minority demand for open housing. The House of Representatives yielded to it.

There is not a strong majority demand, however. Deplore this as they may, advocates of open housing cannot prove there is a majority demand for an open-housing proposal.

A Creepy Feeling

WASHINGTON

This year Congress had a creepy feeling, and it's still creeping.

It was different last year. That was the up-and-at-'em year.

The Democrats, fresh from their election triumphs in November 1964, ran the show in 1965 with their overwhelming majorities in both House and Senate. President Johnson called Congress' performance last year fabulous.

What it did was bound to change the social, economic and political life of the nation. It turned out legislation in a torrent, passing 86 major administration bills, including medicare, voting rights and aid to education.

Johnson's Great Society programs were off to a stunning start. Last year's was probably the most productive single session of Congress in history.

AFTER SUCH a deluge it was natural that Johnson this year wouldn't down Congress in quite as big a flood of proposals as in 1965. And he hasn't.

But it would also seem natural that such a peppy Congress would still work with a rush, particularly since this is another election year with all 435 House seats and 35 Senate seats at stake. But it hasn't.

It has dawdled all year, so much so that there's a good chance now it will have to quit temporarily in mid-October so members can go home and campaign for the November elections, and come back for a lame-duck session.

That session, since it would still be the present Congress, would include men defeated in November since none of the newly-elected could take their seats until next year.

But a lot of them members — starting perhaps last June — weren't waiting for mid-October to go home and try to round up votes. It's happening right now.

Missing Boys

The only other thing that bothers me about contests to pick the best-looking females is incidental.

The main thing that bothers me is the females.

I have known only two contestants in the Miss America pageant. Neither won the big potato, but both were handsome, talented, poised, utterly charming.

Only one thing was wrong with them.

The same thing is wrong with most beautiful females. They know they are beautiful. They can't keep from knowing it. Everybody tells them.

This develops an attitude of assurance based on their possession of one visible attribute. Whereas other females must make the most of attributes not visible, such as charm, conspicuously beautiful women have the easy task of showing off to advantage what they couldn't hide if they wanted to.

They may possess hidden attributes, but who cares?

They may possess no hidden attributes — but who cares about that, either?

There is such a thing as a woman being too beautiful for her own long-range satisfaction in life.

There is such a thing as a woman being too beautiful for the long-range satisfaction of her friends and acquaintances.

This is the main thing that bothers me about beauty contests — the beautiful females

This has nothing to do with civil rights. It is concerned with property values, an extremely sensitive area of feeling among people with a proprietary interest in protecting their equity in real estate investments.

The United States is not ready yet to tell these people they have lost the right to choose tenants and buyers, lest it interfere with the civil rights of a minority of U.S. citizens. The U.S. Senate is reflecting popular opinion.

Just A Thought

We have our share of problems locally. Many are frustrating, many are discouraging. And they are important problems.

But as challenging as they may seem, their enormity diminishes somewhat in light of the problems of others throughout the world.

The courageous dash for freedom of five young people from the Red sector of eastern Germany to the free zone of the west is a case at point.

Our freedom becomes more precious and our problems somewhat lighter when the plight of others comes to mind.

By James Marlow

Monday in the House on a roll call vote only 250 of the 435 members showed up. This concern about getting re-elected, and the work it involves, explains in part the slow pace of the present Congress. But not all of it.

Johnson has lost much of his magic control over Congress, the kind he had in 1965 after his huge victory over Sen. Barry Goldwater in 1964 had carried a lot of Democrats to victory with him.

AT A TIME when Johnson's own popularity with the public is slipping, according to the polls, it has slipped in Congress, too, at least to the extent that he members are no longer so eager to say "yes, sir," when Johnson speaks.

One veteran observer of the House remarked: "A lot of these guys this year are not so anxious to have their vote, yes or no, on a piece of legislation because that only means that much more explaining to the folk back home."

At the same time Johnson's leadership hasn't been so concentrated as it was in 1965. He has to spend a lot more time with the war in Viet Nam. And he dawdled about doing something to head off inflation.

Last year the badly outnumbered Republicans, shattered and bewildered by their disaster in the 1964 elections and practically tongue-tied as a result of it, were so limp and mentally denuded that they actually quizzed outsiders for ideas to use against Johnson.

This year they gathered themselves together and are sniping, if not sharpshooting, at him.

That by itself spoils some of the smooth sailing Johnson had in 1965. Some major bills and appropriations measures still are awaiting action. One of Johnson's pet projects, the civil rights bill, seems all but dead.

When this session finally ends, Johnson may praise it but he will never be able to call it fabulous.

By Truman Twill

who enter them. I speculate about what happens to a female who is the center of attention, like a prize specimen in a livestock exhibit.

The less important thing that bothers me is lack of a comparable exhibit of young American males.

A Mr. America contest might be a money-maker, too.

There would be lively interest in an exhibit that featured prize young men. To play safe, it could be run off in conjunction with the Miss America Pageant.

The boys could strut in tight-fitting swim suits, pirouette in dinner jackets, sing "Ole Man River," do nip-ups, recite "The Shooting of Dan McGrew" and set the physical appearance standard for their sex, just as the girls do.

All Miss America contestants tend to look the same. It would be the same with Mr. America contestants. They would be standard setters of the breed.

They would have a powerful impact on other young males, who would find motivation for looking their best, in hope of winning the grand prize and living photogenically ever after.

It's something to think about, now that the National Football League has given the Miss America Pageant something to think about. That football game Saturday night was sort of a Mr. America contest in itself.

'Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better'

'How To Eat Cake, Have It?'

By Bruce Bioassat

High on the list of President Johnson's tough economic decisions is the question of how much more money to ask Congress to appropriate next year for Great Society programs.

Any sizable increase could prove to be one more critical stimulator in an economy already overheated by too many stimulators and destined to feel the effect of still others in the months ahead.

Well-remarked is the prospect of an early presidential request for an extra $10-$15 billion in funds for the Viet Nam war. But that will not be the end of it. Next year's regular request for war funds is sure to be higher than the 1966-67 figure. Even if the President again postpones asking for part of the need.

Equally well-publicized is the outlook for a very heavy round of wage increases in late 1966 and 1967, involving such industries as electrical products, the telephone system, rubber, meat packing, trucking, paper, farm equipment, automobiles and machinery.

TRIGGERED BY RISING PRICES and the guidepost-smashing August airline settlement, these major negotiations may initiate a wage-price spiral that will make 1966 look like the belt of calms.

Confronted with all this constantly building pressure, the President will have to agonize over the immediate future of his cherished Great Society endeavors in education, housing, welfare, etc.

His budget message this January acknowledged that he was asking Congress to vote $2.1 billion more for these programs than in the previous year. Some sleuths thought a careful reading of the budget put the increase in requests closer to $3.5 billion.

However that may be, the House already has voted to spend some $500 million above the budget request for Great Society projects and others falling under the Labor - Health-Education-Welfare appropriation. Even a heavy Senate ax probably would not chop all of this increase.

Obviously Johnson will make no determination of his 1967-68 requests until he sees finally what Congress has done this year. But the same factors which led him to seek a Great Society fund hike this year will be working on him again.

THE AUTHORIZING LEGISLATION for these programs contains formulas which prescribe year-by-year escalation in outlays, especially in education, to match rising population and other changes.

Neither the President nor Congress is compelled to provide the full amounts authorized in this climbing scale. But he has strong motivation for keeping that upward push going.

With the aid of the overwhelmingly Democratic 89th Congress, LBJ put these programs across with resounding emphasis. The weak Republican opposition made only futile gestures of protest.

In the President's view, to hold down these programs severely by shutting off their projected funds increases would be to ward the Republicans a victory-by-default after they had once been crushed.

Shaping this year's budget, Johnson sought to deny the GOP that victory while still holding Great Society funds below authorized sums.

HIS GOAL INEVITABLY will be the same for the coming year, but the strain on his political resolve will be greater. Higher war spending and the escalation factors in his domestic projects will make it extremely difficult to blend the federal government's needs into a budget that can be sold to the American people as suitable for an overheated economy which is already noisily hissing steam.

The President's anguish is bound to be magnified by two things—his evident conviction that any major hold-down on education outlays would be damaging to the country, and his wish to disarm the Kennedy-Ribicoff competition by spending handsomely to rebuild U.S. cities.

Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Earl H. Mosher of W. 6th St., an employee of the Homer Laughlin China Co., was elected commander of American Legion Post 4.

An enrollment of only six pupils resulted in the closing of Glendale School, near Rogers. Miss Ruth Murphy, teacher, and the pupils were transferred to the Rogers school.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Charlene Jane Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Baker of Hammondville, enrolled in the Steubenville School of Cosmetology.

The Rev. Frederick T. Gillette, formerly of Bellevue, assumed his duties as rector of the St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Ruth Sanford and Mrs. Esther Vess were soloists during services at the Anderson Methodist Church.

TEN YEARS AGO — Mrs. Evelyn Exley was received as a new member of the Five Queen Club at the home of Mrs. Anna McDonald of Holiday St.

Enrollment in the Hancock County school system reached 7,198.

Mrs. Nell McGillivray of W. 4th St. was appointed chairwoman of the Columbiana County Women's Republican Club.

An Appeal For Humility

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Humility has been called an old-fashioned virtue. Some might even call it an out-of-date virtue.

It does not seem to fit into our scheme of life these days. Our emphasis is placed upon bringing out the personality. We are always worried about children lacking opportunities of self-expression. We fear the inferiority complex. We are worried about being introverts.

We are concerned about getting ahead on our own steam. The rather sacrilegious saying "He who doth not blow his own horn, the same shall not be blown" is quite popular.

We hear all this and then we read in the Gospel the story of the Pharisee and the Publican who went into the temple to pray. The Pharisee sounds almost modern in his devotions. He thanks God that he is not as other men are, especially the Publican. The Publican in his humility does not so much as lift up his eyes to Heaven, but prays, God be merciful to me a sinner.

Our Lord holds up the Publican to us as an example and says that everyone who exalts himself shall be abased and everyone who humbles himself shall be exalted.

This does not sound reasonable in our day and age. Was this advice only true in a day long past?

Other words he uttered are still true. His other teachings are neither old-fashioned nor out of date. Perhaps humility should be more seriously considered.

Our present attitudes may be the product of the age in which we live. Everything seems to encourage people to push themselves forward.

The young man starting out in business or one of the professions today knows that he must make his mark during the early years of his career for men and women are considered old at 50 these days and do not, as a rule, make many advances after that age. To find employment after that age is almost impossible.

This system is not something of which we should be proud. It is scarcely honest, but we must admit that it exists, and possibly is on the increase.

What is humility? Perhaps we had better begin by stating what it is not. Humility is not making a human doormat out of yourself. It is not being a perpetual "yes" man, agreeing with everybody and apparently having no ideas of your own. It does not consist of making a Casper Milquetoast of yourself.

Jesus said, "He who would be my disciple must say no to himself and take up his cross and follow after me."

Thus, humility is having to forget the personal angle of every circumstance in life and to think only of the common good. By so doing, alone, may be exalted.

There is a college at Cambridge in England which has three gates by which the students may enter. The gates are marked Humility, Virtue, and Honor.

The first - year students enter through the gate, Humility, the second - year students through the one marked Virtue. The upper classmen and faculty only enter through the gate marked Honor.

The Christ-like principle is true of all life. We must always begin with humility. It is only through humility that we may reach virtue and finally honor. For whosoever exalteth himself, shall be abased and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

A Pirate Fan Complains

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Your paper has been quite obviously boosters of the Cleveland Indians since, well, who knows when. Statehood loyalty to the contrary, to me the element of distance and local favoritism for Pittsburgh should have some consideration. But the owners, managers and writers of The Review have given little regard for any feelings but their own.

The epitome of rudeness and disregard towards the Pirates appeared in the Review of Sept. 6. East Liverpool was so honored by the pennant - contending Pittsburgh Pirates to have Joseph Marrelli of 1021 Bradshaw Ave. as an honored bat boy. Through inexcusable negligence, the player in the picture, on the sports page, was unmentioned.

If loyalty, by a few, in the right positions, rules over the subscribers' interests then surely your paper's editions are printed for a captured audience.

For information purposes, the Pirate in the picture was the great rookie left-handed pitcher Woody Fryman.

I request that this letter be published in your letters to the editor column.

WAYNE A. ROBB
1029 Huston Ave.

(Editor's Note—Having made arrangements for the photo mentioned above, we at The Review were fully informed as to the identity of the Pittsburgh player. Your reference to "inexcusable negligence" covers the matter well. It's as simple as that, we pulled a boo-boo. In fairness to the sports department, the error was made by the city desk not by the sports editor.

However, we can't accept your charge that The Review is partial to the Indians over the Pirates. While we haven't the time to measure the coverage over the last five or 10 years in "inches," we feel quite confident such a measurement would disclose that the Pirates have received more space than Cleveland. As a side thought, The Review sports editor is one of the few in the nation who picked Pittsburgh to win the pennant.)

For Architectural Matters

Engineering Firm Hired By Midland School Board

Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester, was hired as consulting architectural engineer for Midland Public Schools when the Board of Education met Monday night at the administration building in Lincoln High School.

The engineering firm will receive $600 annually, payable in quarterly installments, and, in turn, will provide a representative to attend board meetings when requested and will offer advice by telephone or otherwise when requested on architectural matters.

A GIFT of $5,003 was made to the Beaver County Community College fund payable in three installments.

Mrs. Anna Della Valle of 728 Beaver Ave. was hired as a full-time substitute teacher in the elementary program at a pro-rated annual salary of $4,500. A graduate of California State College, Mrs. Della Valle taught four years in the Clairton School District before beginning her substitute teaching career at Midland in 1931.

The board ratified its earlier action in hiring Joseph E. Hamilton as a teacher in the secondary program subject to assignment at $5,800; Ivan R. Dye at $6,500; Miss Pauline DeSora at $4,600; and Thomas Hanson at $4,600; Hamilton as head football coach at $1,200; Dye as assistant football coach and head baseball coach at $500 each; Hansen as junior high football coach at $500, and John Buzzinotti and Albert Randolph at $300 and $200, respectively, for assistant football coaching.

The salary of Victor Martinetti, athletic director, was ad-sylvania State University, University Park, Pa.

THE SCHOOL bus contract was transferred from Blair E. Ferguson to Harold Shank at $54 daily for public school transportation, plus a share of the cost of transporting pupils to Presentation Parochial School.

By a re-scheduling of buses, the previous $70 daily cost was reduced to $54 for public school transportation.

Permission was granted the Catholic Youth Organization to use the old gymnasium two nights a week for basketball practice and on Saturday for games, providing there is no conflict with already existing schedules; to the Midland Junior Women's Club, which requested permission to use the home economics department each Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. to conduct the Bishop sewing course for adults; to the First Baptist Church, which requested use of the auditorium Oct. 30 from 3 to 7 p.m. for the presentation of a musical program, and to the St. George Tambrizans, which requested use of the auditorium and two classrooms for their annual musical presentation Oct. 14 from 2 to 6 p.m.

Maurice J. Newman presided and announced that Migliore Ford will furnish a 1967 car at no expense for the driver training program at Lincoln High School.

Sam Rossatone, maintenance supervisor, advised that the 12th St. football field has been marked and bleachers have been installed. He also advised that a short in floor wiring in the school shop has been re-occurring since the flood in late July. He said three machines in the shop are on the same circuit.

Newman said $5,000 had been allocated in the budget for re-wiring the shop and the board would take necessary action to correct the matter.

DERSHIMER requested John F. Shovlin III, chairman of the rules committee, to investigate the possible updating of the faculty and student handbooks and board policies.

James E. Morrison was asked to complete information on accounting machines in answer to a request that one be purchased for use in the school business office.

Dershimer advised he will seek to update the vocal and instrumental music program in the elementary schools, with particular emphasis on teaching more students to play instruments.

Reports showed $102,656 collected in taxes and $125,968.70 in accounts at the Beaver Trust and the First National Bank. Bills amounting to $17,831.34 were approved for payment.

There will be a special meeting of the Board of Education Sept. 21 at 8 p.m. for "general business."

Deaths Funerals

Frank Early

EAST PALESTINE — Frank B. Early, 85, of Negley, retired refractory firm worker, died Monday night at 8 at his home following an extended illness.

Son of the late John L. and Melinda Gorby Early, he was born July 1, 1881, at Negley. He was married to Freda Grossman in 1933.

He was employed at the New Castle Refractories at New Galilee, Pa., until his retirement 15 years ago. He attended the Negley Methodist Church.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by a son, George Early of Negley; two brothers, William Early of Beaver Falls and Clarence Early of Cannelton, and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the Oliver Funeral Home by the Rev. Leland Floyd, pastor of the church. Burial will be in Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Friends may call Wednesday night at the funeral home.

Expressions of sympathy may be made in the form of tributes to the church.

Bridge

ning an old steel bridge being dismantled by the County Highway Department near the former North Branch School west of here had been donated to the village as a replacement for the wooden West End span.

The county plans a new bridge at the former school site.

Pete Growall, street supervisor, was to go to the site today and begin transporting the metal span to the West End site for erection, the Mayor said.

Stoplight Cost Holds Up Any Lisbon Action

LISBON—Bill Mattix of council's street committee has reported a stoplight for the N. Market St. - Jerome St. junction would cost approximately $1,500.

He informed Council Monday night the state would require two lights — one for each lane of traffic — at each of the three approaches to the junction. N. Market is Route 45 and Jerome St. carries Route 164.

Originally, Mattix figured a three-way light would be satisfactory and could be installed for approximately $600. He said the $1,500 cost puts the project out of reach for the present.

Council's only formal action last night was to adopt after third reading the Ohio Edison Co.'s new rate ordinance for streetlights.

A letter from the Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce expressed appreciation for the street department's work in keeping downtown streets clean this summer.

The street committee reported it found no reason to replace the Jefferson - Washington St. blinker with a traffic light as requested last month by a resident.

Mayor Dean Stockman asked the police committee to have specifications for a new cruiser ready for the next meeting Sept. 26.

Pitt Status Okayed

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Board of Trustees at the University of Pittsburgh has officially approved Pitt's new state-related status. The board voted Monday to accept changes in its by-laws that had been approved by the State Legislature in July.

Mayor To Attend 4-Day Session Of Municipal Group

Mayor George E. Willshaw is scheduled to attend the four-day 15th annual Ohio Municipal Conference and products exhibit next Tuesday through Friday at the Netherlands Hotel in Cincinnati.

Gov. James A. Rhodes will speak at a luncheon meeting at noon Sept. 21. Frazier Reams Jr., Democratic candidate for governor, will address the group at a luncheon on Sept. 22.

The meeting will range over a wide series of topics, including: "Annexation," "Traffic Safety," "Municipal Finance," "Changing Role of Police in Urban Society," "Federal Aid" and "Powers and Duties of Council."

A workshop is scheduled on seeking federal aid for municipal and village projects.

2 Promise Payment.

Tax Cases Dismissed

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today dismissed charges against two men accused of violating the city income tax ordinance after both defendants made arrangements with Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson to pay the amounts allegedly due.

Herman Cowdery Sr. of 530 Maple St. and Jessie Flowers of 927 Fairview St. were accused of failure to file final returns on 1965 income and failure to furnish estimates of 1966 earnings. Both pleaded guilty. Wilkinson filed the affidavits on Aug. 25.

Queried by the judge, both men said they were willing to make settlements. After conferring with the tax commissioner and arranging settlements, their cases were dismissed on payment of costs.

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Dershimer advised he will seek to update the vocal and instrumental music program in the elementary schools, with

"A CLOTHES DRYER THAT DOES MY IRONING? RIDICULOUS!"

Show us a lady who doubts a modern Gas dryer can do her ironing, and we'll show you a lady who wonders why everyone's so excited about the new Permanent Press clothing.

Oh, she's tried Permanent Press. She's washed them, hung them out to dry—and gotten clothesline creases, clothespin puckers and droopy knees that still need plenty of hand ironing.

Pity. Somebody should tell her that the wonderful new Permanent Press clothing is made to be dried in an automatic dryer. Most Permanent Press labels say the garments absolutely must have gentle tumble-action to pop out the wrinkles and snap back the creases.

She should know that a Gas dryer can do most of her ironing for her. Slacks, shirts, dresses, children's clothes, sheets, pillowcases, stretch clothes, knits and dozens of other Permanent Press miracles are at her store just waiting for her to see the light. Soon she'll be able to buy everything washable in Permanent Press and retire her iron to the attic to keep the washboard company.

And somebody should let her know that penny-a-load gas dryers dry everything—Permanent Press or not—for about one-fifth what it costs to run an electric dryer. Poor lady. Somebody just has to tell her.

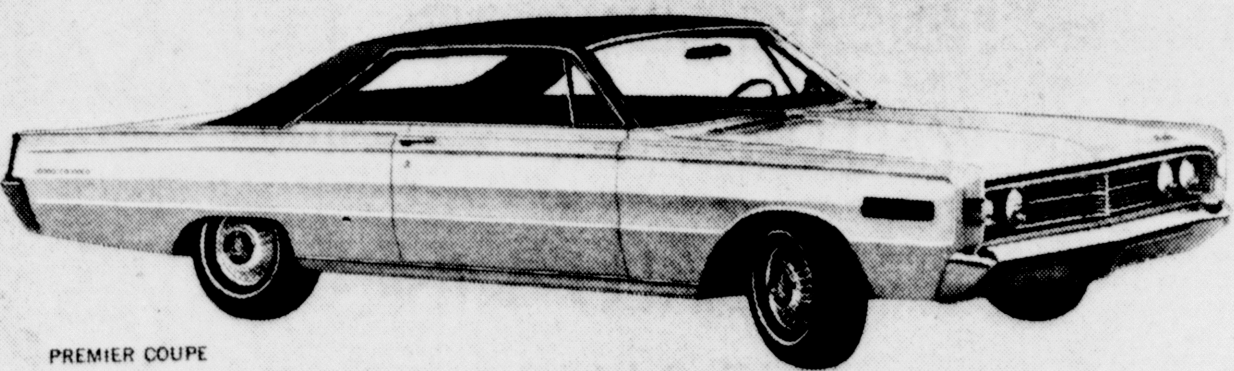

Will you do it? Please?

Officer Cites Driver, 29, In City Collision

A 29-year-old Kentuckian was cited on a charge of driving without an operator's permit after a collision between his truck and a Chester woman's car Monday at 5:36 p.m. on Walnut St. at E. 5th St., police reported.

Patrolman Leonard E. Rich-ard filed the charge against George Castor of Madisonville, Ky., following the mishap that damaged a 1966 car operated by Pauline M. Cooper, 41, of Short St., Chester, officers said. The woman said she was halted on Walnut St. for a traffic signal when Castor attempted to pull around her auto and turn onto E. 5th St. The truck bumped the car, damaging the left front fender, door and hubcap, officers said.

Castor forfeited a $37.50 appearance bond today in Municipal Court.

A drifting boxcar was blamed for damage to a parked truck in an unusual mishap Monday at 3:35 p.m. on the lot at the Pottery Supply Co. at the foot of Washington St., officers said. The Southern Pacific boxcar hit a vehicle owned by the Herriott Trucking Co., Inc., of Darlington, damaging the right front fender, officers said. The unidentified truck driver told police the Milliron Co. was moving the boxcar when it bumped the truck.

Minor damage resulted in a mishap on Dresden Ave. Monday at 11:05 p.m., officers said. A parked 1960 car owned by Anthony J. Cimento of Youngstown was bumped by a 1962 model car driven by William E. Richardson, 41, of Oakmont, who was backing while maneuvering in a parking place, police said.

Two cars were damaged in another collision Monday at 3:15 p.m. on W. 6th St. at Peach Alley, officers said.

The collision involved a 1961 coupe operated by Mabel H. Husk, 53, of 309 Grant St. and a 1963 model car operated by Martha M. Hudson, 45, of New Castle, Pa., officers said.

The local woman said she was driving west in the left-hand lane of W. 6th St. when the New Castle woman pulled into her lane from the right. The New Castle woman said she had halted to allow two police cruis-ers to pull onto the thoroughfare from Peach Alley and then began to change lanes, not seeing the Husk auto.

Hospital Treats 5 In Emergencies

A woman hurt in a fall at home and a girl injured in a fall from exercise bars were among five district residents treated at City Hospital Monday.

Mrs. Martha Badgley of 1696 Jennings Ave. received injuries of the forearm and shoulder in a fall at home and was treated last night.

Roxanne Obenour, daughter of James Obenour of 208 Maplewood Ave., suffered an injury to the left leg in a fall from exercise bars at Taft School.

Bradley Smith, son of Herbert Smith of 218½ Grant St., Newell, was treated for a possible fracture of the right arm after a fall.

Krysan Howard, daughter of David Howard of 357 Ogden St., suffered a cut on the left heel when it became caught in a bi-cycle wheel.

Stephen Ulbright, son of Carl Ulbright of R.D. 2, received a cut on the forehead in a fall from a bike.

Demand Bargaining Agent

400 Youngstown Nurses Issue Warning Of Strike

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—About 400 nurses say they will quit their jobs at two Youngstown hospitals in about two weeks if the Ohio State Nurses Association is not recognized as their bargaining agent.

Mrs. Joyce Nagel, president of the Youngstown General Duty Nurses Association said Monday night the key issue was not wages, but local recognition of the state organization by the Youngstown Hospital Association.

The dissident nurses represent about 90 per cent of the nursing staffs at North and South Side Hospitals. St. Elizabeth, the city's other main hospital, is not affected because nurses there don't belong to the nurses association.

The hospital association has said it cannot bargain with employees because it is a nonprofit organization.

The long argument between the nurses and the hospitals was brought to a head Monday night when the nurses voted, 255-0, to resign from the hospital association in about two weeks.

Recent wage increases do not tempt the nurses to reconsider their action, Mrs. Nagel said, because they are interested primarily in the bargaining and will not accept the "fraternalistic system of the hospital administrator."

A June wage increase boosted starting salary for registered nurses from $1.90 to $2.30 an hour. The hospitals announced Monday there would be additional wage adjustments Oct. 1, plus six paid holidays effective Jan. 1, 1967. Also, a more liberal sick leave policy was being developed.

Radio Figure Dies

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—Earl J. Glade, 70, early Utah radio station executive and former mayor of Salt Lake City, died Monday after a year's illness. Glade was the founder of radio station KLO in Ogden, and in 1922 he organized the Radio Service Corp. of Utah, owner and operator of radio station KSL in Salt Lake City.

Humane Society Asks Funds For Animal Shelter

The Executive Board of the Potters City Humane Society, meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John McThena at 404 Elm St., discussed further plans for a $2,000 fund drive to finance erection of a new animal shelter.

The board said contributions may be mailed to Mrs. McThena's home, which is the society's headquarters. The donations will be deposited in a special fund in the First National Bank, it added. Several sites are under consideration for the shelter, but none has been selected definitely.

Harold E. Flowers, city dog warden who is secretary-treasurer and statutory agent of the society, explained why the group used another name on a non-profit Ohio incorporation charter granted last week by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

Another organization here is incorporated at the East Liverpool Humane Society, he said. The recently-incorporated group previously called itself the East Liverpool Chapter of the Ohio Federated Humane Societies.

Marine Back At Base Following Visit Here

Lance Cpl. Jerry L. Hillyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hillyer of 818 St. George St., has reported to the Marine base at Cherry Point, N.C., after a brief visit here.

He recently returned to the U.S. following three months' schooling at the Roosevelt Roads Naval Air Station in Puerto Rico.

Cpl. Hillyer was graduated from East Liverpool High School in 1965 and joined the Marine Corps shortly thereafter. Following basic training at Parris Island, S. C., he was transferred to Cherry Point and entered Naval Aviation Ordnance School. He will leave later this month for Yuma, Ariz., for more schooling in aircraft and munitions.

Payment Ends Case

LISBON — The Ohio Liquor Control at Columbus said a suspension ordered against George Muntean and Nicholas Muntean co-executors of the estate of Anne Pondi of Lincoln Highway for delinquent sales tax assessment payment has been rescinded. The taxes have been paid in full and the case dismissed. The case was heard June 9.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 18 and was engaged to be married in eight weeks. I said "was" because I broke the engagement after I received a letter from a very close friend.

I'm going to enclose my friend's letter and ask you to print it. It really opened my eyes. Maybe it will open some other eyes around the country.

Dear ZM: I know you won't take my advice but I feel I must tell you. Please, please, please think it over before you get married. I'm exactly your age and it's been only 10 months since I was a bride. But I can tell you, honey, we are both too young for marriage.

"We grew up together and I know how much fun and good times mean to you. I thought I could give up a lot of things because I was in love with Bill and I was sure that just being married would be a lot of fun—but I confess that the last four months haven't been any fun at all, just regrets.

"BEFORE I MARRIED I remember what a blast it was to drive my dad's nice car. Bill and I have an old piece of junk that sits in front of the house because we don't have money for gas.

"Do you know what it's like not to be able to buy a new dress, or a bottle of nail polish, or a can of hair spray? Well, I do. And something else, you'll never realize how many things your mother did for you until you have to do them yourself. I used to change blouses twice a day, but I don't do that any more since I'm the one who has to wash and iron them.

"I thought marriage meant freedom. Well, it might have meant freedom from my parents but now I have to answer to a husband who is 10 times more demanding than my parents ever were.

"HAVE I MENTIONED loneliness? Well, get ready. Bill goes to work at 8:30 a.m. and comes home at 7 p.m. Two nights a week he's in school and one night a week he bowls with the guys. If you think your single friends are going to keep you company, forget it. After a few months you're just another old married woman.

"I'm not trying to talk you out of anything. I just want you to know what you're getting into. I wish somebody had wised me up. If they had, I'd be single today. Think it over and good luck, no matter what. —DOT-TIE."

DEAR ZM: Many thanks to you for sending on Dottie's letter. Little did she realize that it would be read by millions.

Her story is not new to me. I receive such letters every day from dozens of discontented teen-age brides. I'm glad Dottie's experience changed your mind. I hope to heaven it changes some other young minds around the country.

Confidentially

DOGHOUSE JOE: Willingness to admit a mistake and to apologize for it is indeed admirable. But you have repeated the same foolish mistake over and over again. Now the question is: When are you going to learn from your mistakes and stop acting like a donkey?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

themselves assigned to Columbiana County — "complete rural isolation." They can laugh now after a look around.

Even at the time, Ruthann thought she recognized something familiar about the town "Lisbon," having traveled through eastern Ohio by bus on her way from Richmond to Indiana. She recognized Court-house Square as soon as she saw it.

Ruthann said she heard about VISTA on television and applied because she is interested in people and social work. She said her experience among poor families in the iron ore region of northern Michigan strengthened her decision to devote a year to VISTA.

SUSAN enrolled last spring when a VISTA team made a recruiting trip to Milwaukee. She leaned toward the program because of a girl friend who was a VISTA worker the past year in New Jersey. Susan is interested in social sciences and psychology and plans to work for a master's degree.

VISTA is among the "ask what you can do for your country" jobs suggested by the late President Kennedy in his challenge to those who would make America strong. The local workers will receive $90 per month each for housing and food, plus a $50 per month stipend payable at year's end. This amounts to about $450 for the year, they said, since the salary is subject to tax.

They have no car—a necessity, Lewis said, in the work they will be doing. His application for a government transportation grant is in the office of Economic Opportunity at Washington.

Both girls said their parents were upset at their decision, particularly about the interruption in their college careers. Ruthann said she chose to sign up because she didn't have any real goal and wanted to test her inclination toward a social service career.

Reflecting on her field experience with families in the pulpwood belt, Susan said it's hard to evaluate one's effectiveness. "It's not like we are knights on white chargers and can change things all at once," she said. She said it may be she will gain more than the people she seeks to help.

Whoever designed the VISTA pin was inspired by the agency's vision. The right arm of the "V" is ascendant and topped with an arrowhead. VISTA's outreach is upward, Susan said.

2 Drivers Penalized By Judge At Palestine

Emmett Z. Lawrence of 19 Riverside Park paid court costs on a charge of failure to yield the right of way at County Judge Herbert Arfman's Court in East Palestine Monday.

James E. Ruscoe of New Waterford was fined $5 and costs for driving without a proper muffler.

sewage system project and the Madison firm plans to notify county authorities about the survey and the agreement with the village, Fitch said.

The mayor also said plans are being considered for the razing or burning as a firemen's practice session of the Lewis home on North St., badly damaged by a fire three years ago.

Council took under study a claim filed by Paul Sweeney of East End for a muffler damaged in an alley.

Councilman Gillis Earl said Washington Township plans some fill work and reduction of a curve in the road at the village dump and proposed the bridge at the entrance of the dump be raised at the same time.

It was announced the cost of the state audit of the village's financial books amounted to $1,608.

The next meeting will be Sept. 26.

Revision OK'd In Southern's Lunch Prices

SALINEVILLE—An increase in the prices of school lunches for seventh and eighth graders at the Southern Local School District schools was authorized by the board of education Monday night.

The resumption of the regular prices was approved with the stipulation only one sandwich be served high school students instead of the customary two available previously.

The prices for the lunches will be 35 cents for grades seven through 12 and 30 cents for grades one through six. Last year, grades one through eight paid 30 cents.

The revision of the cafeteria finance structure had been sought because there was a $1,100 deficit in the cafeteria fund last year, Supt. Thomas Leek explained.

In other action, Herman Noling of Kensington R.D. and Lawrence Bush of Lisbon R.D. were named substitute bus drivers. Anyone interested in a substitute driver's position may notify Supt. Leek.

The board established additional bus pickups in the High-landtown and Wayne areas and agreed to study a nother pickup requested in the Franklin area.

A study of possible later dismissal times for elementary schools was authorized by the board in a move to provide additional classroom time for pupils if feasible.

John Ewing board member, was named a delegate to the Ohio School Boards Association meeting at Columbus in November.

The next three meetings of the board have been changed to the first Wednesday of the month instead of the first Monday as scheduled because Phil Maher, member, will be attending classes at Youngstown University.

Woman Driver Fined On Speeding Charges

Mrs. Marie Johnston, 28, of Anderson Ave., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs today in Municipal Court when she pleaded guilty to a State Highway Patrol charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone Saturday night at 10:30 on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd.

Judge Samuel Chertoff granted a continuance until Sept. 21 in the case of John L. Coble, 26, of 8th Ave., LaCroft, accused of operating an unsafe vehicle. Coble was instructed to junk the old car and return to court with proof of the disposition. He was cited Monday night at 6 on Market St. by Patrolman Karl Samples.

Charles W. Hoppel of R.D. 3 was due a hearing today on a charge of failure to yield the right - of - way, but the judge granted a continuance until Wednesday. Hoppel was cited by the patrol Aug. 29, accused of not yielding the right-of-way when pulling onto County Rd. 430 from a private driveway.

Rights

give details of their conversation.

Dirksen indicated in an interview the administration might have salvaged part of the legislation if it had abandoned the open housing section he contends is unconstitutional.

This provision, which would ban racial discrimination in the sale and rental of about 40 per cent of the nation's housing, has drained away support among Northern senators for the overall measure as they have assessed the violent reaction to efforts to integrate some all-white neighborhoods.

Although he has criticized other sections of the measure—particularly a provision on selection of juries—Dirksen has never said he would be unwilling to entertain compromises on them.

Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach's statement to Dirksen and Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield that the administration would rather have no bill at all than one without the housing section obviously reflected a political judgment by President Johnson.

As Senators read Johnson's position, it is that Republicans can be blamed for the failure to pass any civil rights legislation in an election year of racial turmoil.

If Dirksen has any fear of Negro retaliation against GOP candidates, he and his Republican senatorial followers are considerably less disturbed by the prospect than some other members of his party. The suspicion is that Dirksen feels white reaction to open housing will more than counterbalance any loss in Negro support.

Six of the Senate's 33 Republicans came forward to sign a debate-limiting petition Mansfield filed Monday. The Senate will vote on the cloture motion Wednesday—the seventh working day on the measure—and Dirksen predicted it will be defeated.

The six GOP members who signed are Sens. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, Hiram L. Fong of Hawaii, Jacob K. Javits of New York, Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, and Robert P. Griffin of Michigan.

Salem Driver Charged As Car Rams Another

Charles Stoddard, 43, of Salem was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol early Monday morning after his car struck the rear of another at the scene of a previous accident on the Smiths Ferry - Calcutta Rd.

Stoddard, driving a 1963 sedan, hit the rear of a 1962 sedan operated by William Gunn, 55, of 6th Ave., LaCroft, who was in a line of cars halted at the scene of a one-car mishap about two miles east of Calcutta.

Stoddard was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

About an hour before a car operated by Ronald Passage, 18, of Lisbon R.D. 2 had gone over a hillside after a tire blew out.

School Addition Bid Opening Set

Supt. Frank Meredith announced bids for construction of the Fairview Elementary School addition will be opened Oct. 13 at 8 p. m. at the Fairview School when the Board of Directors of Western Beaver County Schools met Monday night at the high school.

The proposed addition includes kindergarten facilities, eight classrooms, a library, a music room and an administrative suite.

B. J. McCandless of Ellwood City, school architect, was authorized to draw up plans and specifications and to advertise for bids on the installation of a water line from the street to the Fairview School building.

MEREDITH said this project was originally to be included with the school addition, but because of a lack of water supplied by two wells at the school, immediate action is being taken to alleviate the shortage.

Bills totaling $179,354.64 were approved for payment, including $112,185.27 for the annual rental to the State School Authority; $56,267.96 for salaries and $10,901.41 for general bills.

Athletic bills totaling $5,344.83 were approved for payment.

At the August board meeting, Meredith had been authorized to hire needed personnel and the board ratified his action at Monday's meeting.

Approved was the hiring of Peter Spadera of Clairton, as instrumental music instructor and band director; Arthur Tiffen of Beaver Falls, under emergency certification, as elementary teacher; William Compton of Hookstown, secondary social studies; Mrs. Nancy Rowe of Industry, as elementary teacher; Mrs. Florence Krakoff of Industry, as clerk for guidance and library; Mrs. Blanche Staats of Ohio View at Industry, clerk to the elementary principal, and Mrs. Frances Krovitsky of Smiths

Rhodes Visit Due In County

LISBON — Gov. James A. Rhodes and other state office-holders will visit Columbiana County early next month on a "report to the people" tour planned by the Republican party.

Charles A. Pike of Lisbon, county GOP chairman, made the announcement Monday noon at the county Republican advisory group's semi-monthly meeting in the Wick Hotel. Thirty-two attended.

Earl Nelson, state highway engineer from the District 11 office at New Philadelphia, discussed county road projects completed and to be started.

Candidates present and making brief statements were State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel of Lisbon, County Commissioner James W. Boyd of East Liverpool, Charles J. Gause of Hanoverton R.D. 1, candidate for commissioner; William H. Weir of Salem, running for 18th District congressman; D. Barry Dickson of East Palestine, candidate for County Court judge. Representatives spoke for State Auditor Roger Cloud and State Treasurer John D. Herbert.

The group's next meeting will be Sept. 26 at noon at the Wick.

Big Rig Takes Wild Dash On Lisbon Street

LISBON — A tractor-trailer rolled downgrade from a W. Lincoln Way parking place at 6:50 a. m. today, knocked down a large route marker sign on the Square and stopped against a utility pole.

Police Sgt. Kenneth McKenzie said the driverless truck rolled more than 300 feet from its parking place on Lincoln Way (U.S. Route 30) opposite the diner. The truck crossed to the north side of Lincoln Way opposite the Courthouse, where it hit the sign, then crossed N. Market St. (Route 45) and rammed a pole which helps support the traffic light at the intersection. The light did not break loose, but witnesses said "it bounced like a ball."

William E. Crow of Warren forfeited a $25 appearance bond on a charge of improper brakes. He was having coffee in the Diner when the truck rolled away. Similar accidents have occurred previously at the location.

Quarterback Gary Marshall of Binghamton, N.Y., captains Lafayette's football team.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruise —

DEAR HELOISE: When ironing large articles, such as curtains, etc., fold a bath towel in half lengthwise and pin it (open side up) like a hammock to the edge of the ironing board cover at each end on the side next to you—thus forming a pocket.

Place the dampened article in the towel, which will keep it from drying out and out from underfoot.

As you iron, the article will be pulled away from you, taking the heat with it.

MRS. J. B. ELIFF.

Ladies, this is truly a wonderful hint. I appreciate it most when ironing my long tablecloths. It was a chore to iron the end which always partially dried out.

That little old "towel, hammock" really solved the problem!

Bless you, Mrs. Eliff.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: You know how elusive the end of a piece of sticky tape can be on the roll?

After you have cut off a piece of tape, lay a paper clip across the roll and put the end of the tap over it.

No more problems finding the end or getting it started, just give the paper clip a turn and the tape is loose.

DEAR HELOISE: My husband tacked a piece of foam rubber across the bottom rung of our stepladder.

This way, when he backs down the ladder, it is easy to feel when he has reached the last step. Quite a safety factor.

MRS. MAGUIRE.

DEAR HELOISE: When

want to air a coat or jacket outside on the clothesline, I put two hangers in opposite directions in each garment.

The two hooks act as a lock on the line and the wind does not blow the hangers off.

G.R.

DEAR HELOISE: This is for young mothers (with more than one child) who find it difficult to keep up with the cute saying and acts of their little ones.

I have found it convenient to use my appointment book (or calendar) to jot down what took place, on the date in the book.

This way I don't forget anything, and can pass them on to the grandparents.

E.F.

DEAR HELOISE: When you (or your child) need some tracing paper, but you are all out of regular tracing paper, try air mail paper.

It works just as well, and is less expensive.

CONSTANCE MOYER.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a bottle of red nail polish—but I don't use it on my fingernails!

I put a little dab of it around the "spray point" which is hard to see on some bottles and cans.

I have a spot of the polish on my insecticide spray bottle, hair spray, etc. (Some years back, before I started doing that, I sprayed some room deodorant right into my eyes.)

I also put a dab of the polish on each side of my snap clothes-pins. I live in an eight-unit apartment, and others use the same clothesline. Now it is so easy to tell which are my pins.

RUTH LOOMIS.

Negroes Defy Ordinance, To Stage March

BOGALUSA, La. (AP)—Negroes voted to defy a city ordinance and stage a protest march tonight.

The vote was taken Monday night at a meeting held by the Bogalusa Civic and Voters League to hear Negro pupils of the Bogalusa Junior High School complain of harassment by white pupils.

League President A. Z. Young told the approximately 200 Negroes: "When you get some money, don't spend it on wine, get a gun."

He said the league had declared war on the Ku Klux Klan and "someone is going to have to die."

The league has complained that the only purpose of banning night marches is to halt such demonstrations during the only time Negroes can take part in them because of their employment and other activities. A hearing on a suit attacking the ordinance will be held in U.S. District Court in New Orleans Oct. 5.

While the league meeting was being held, about 650 whites went before the Bogalusa School Board to protest federal orders integrating the schools.

Board Chairman Alcous Stewart said the orders would be appealed. "We cannot live under the court order we are under," he said. "It is an impossibility."

Whites booed Wyatt Fleming, principal of Bogalusa Junior High, where several complaints had originated. He said that investigations had shown that several incidents involving Negro and white pupils, the whites were guilty.

Fleming added there would be protection for all children attending classes.

Saxon Farmer, a segregation leader, drew loud cheers when he told the group: "I don't know why it is that elected and appointed officials haven't got the guts to stand up and fight the battle."

Earlier in the day, Farmer's brother, Paul Farmer, was arrested on charges of disturbing the peace after he allegedly pointed a shotgun at Rowan Burris, a member of the militant Deacons for Defense in front of the Bogalusa Junior High School.

About 50 whites and about 20 Negroes then armed themselves and engaged in a glaring stand-off for about 30 minutes before police dispersed the crowd.

Food Prices Are Defended

LISBON — Food bills today are the best bargain in history despite the flurry about rising retail prices, according to J. Glenn Bates, chairman of the Columbiana County Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

He said farm income has increased recently along with the income of other people without harm to consumers or the food industry. "On the contrary," he said, "more nearly fair returns for farmers protect consumers by stabilizing agriculture and making prospects for the future more attractive to able young farmers."

The American consumer is eating better today and at a lower real cost than ever before, Bates said. He said the average family spends about 18 per cent of its after-tax pay on food — the lowest average in the world and by far the lowest in U. S. history. This compares with the same family's 26 per cent for food in 1947 and 20 per cent in 1960, he said.

Bates furnished a list of food items which he said one hour of factory labor earnings will buy today, and listed in parentheses amounts one hour's pay bought in 1960:

White bread, 12.5 pounds (11.1); round steak, 2.4 pounds (2.1); sliced bacon, 3.2 pounds (3.5); butter, 3.5 pounds (3); milk, 9.9 quarts (8.7 quarts); eggs, 5 dozen (3.9 dozen); potatoes, 27.8 pounds (31.4); tomatoes, 16.2 cans (14.2 cans).

Three Presented Chevalier Degree

Three received the Chevalier degree during an investiture service by Harding Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Friday night at the Masonic Temple.

The degree was conferred upon Byron O'Neill, Brent English and William Fletcher, all past master councilors of the chapter.

The cross of honor, highest state honor for advisers, was presented to Homer Hoffman and Clifford Conley.

It was announced that Dr. Alex Fisher and Mayor George Willshaw received the Legion of Honor degree at the DeMolay state convocation last month at Dayton. Merrill Hall received the honorary Legion of Honor degree.

Wilson May Send Official To Rhodesia

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson today was reported considering sending a senior member of his government to Salisbury in a final bid to persuade Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith to end his 10-month rebellion.

The report came amid signs that the 22-nation Commonwealth conference was nearing a compromise agreement on a Rhodesia policy, particularly on the African member nations' demand that Britain withhold independence from the breakaway colony until black majority rule is established there.

Wilson had declined to make such a pledge and outlined a compromise program to a secret conference session Monday. Officials said although much bargaining on details remained, the deadlock over the issue seemed to be breaking down.

Commonwealth Secretary Herbert Bowden was considered a likely candidate for the mission to Salisbury. He was expected to inform Smith of the result of the London conference, including any new measures taken against him.

Wilson's program reportedly includes a compulsory U.N. sanction against Rhodesian exports of tobacco, asbestos, chrome and pig iron and a ban on the sale of oil to Rhodesia.

Informants said Bowden would tell Smith he has until the Sept. 20 opening of the U.N. General Assembly to make up his mind.

The British prime minister also reportedly proposed the formation of a Commonwealth watchdog committee to supervise every stage of the attempt to bring down Smith's white minority regime and replace it with black majority rule. There are 225,000 whites in Rhodesia and 4 million black Africans.

Wilson's proposal reportedly includes a period of direct British rule through the governor general, Sir Humphrey Gibbs, and the formation of an interim government of African leaders and Europeans willing to collaborate.

Finally the Wilson plan calls for the writing of a constitution to provide for government by the African majority.

At Monday Meeting Teaching Needs Are Reviewed By Wellsville Board

The critical need for a Latin instructor and high school commercial teacher was discussed by the Wellsville Board of Education during its meeting Monday night.

William Menough, high school principal, informed the board of the problems involved in handling students who are without classes because of the lack of teachers.

The some 193 affected are being sent to study halls, since it is impossible to absorb them into the curriculum with the present staff, he said. He also pointed out that unless an instructor is received to teach Latin II, it may be difficult for some of the students to pass college entrance examinations.

SUPT. LOWELL Myers reviewed his efforts in endeavoring to obtain new instructors, pointing out that some candidates had been interviewed, but would not come to Wellsville under the present salary schedule.

William Ferrall, board president, declared this emphasizes the necessity for the passage of the school levy at the November election.

Various possible solutions were discussed, including having a teacher from another district instruct classes in the evening. The board also discussed hiring a teacher in another subject to take up the slack.

Myers was urged by the board to increase his efforts to solve the situation.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Gladys Janousek as a junior high English teacher. She is retiring.

Appointed to the staff were Sayed Ahmad, high school mathematics; Miss Marilyn Cheatwood, junior high science; Mrs. Twila Palmer, sixth grade at MacDonald; and Don C. Simkins, high school chemistry and physics.

Approved as substitute teachers were Miss Isa Anderson, Ford Ball, Mrs. Edna Brown, Mrs. Evelyn Fraser, Mrs. Hazel Fraser, Miss Margaret Frischkorn, Mrs. Gail Grimm, Mrs. Isabel Hart, Mrs. Frances Jack, Mrs. Jo Ann Kornbau, Mrs. Ruth McCoy, Mrs. Goldie

Hancock County's Teachers To Assist In State Project

Eight representatives of Hancock County Schools attended a regional "drive-in" conference Saturday at the cafeteria of Triadelphia High School, near Wheeling.

Teachers from Brooke, Ohio, Marshall and Tyler counties also attended.

The Hancock delegation included Mrs. Thelma Daugherty, Mrs. Ruth Haynes, Betty Buen, Ruth Ann Wise, George LaNeve, William Allison, Robert Shaffer and Steven Vandevander.

Eleven other regional conferences sponsored by the West Virginia Classroom Teachers Association were held in other locations throughout the state.

The same subject, Lifting the Aspirations of Children (LAC), was discussed at all 12 meetings. The purpose of the workshops is to provide an opportunity for classroom teachers to exchange ideas and determine the best teaching techniques to use in working with disadvantaged pupils.

For the coming year, the state CTA has placed as a top priority the study of the ways to lift the aspirations of children, the statewide study which has come to be known as the LAC Project.

President Allison said that the Hancock CTA has agreed to cooperate with the state association in promoting the project.

A special county committee has been appointed to develop local plans. Members are Miss Buben, Vandevander, Shaffer, Polly Sherninski and Judy Comm.

Paul Vennari, president of the West Virginia Classroom Teachers, termed the LAC Project one of the most professional studies ever engaged in by the classroom teachers.

He pointed out that LAC has won national recognition and has been awarded a financial grant by the Department of Classroom Teachers of the National Education Association. The money will be used to finance a report of the recommendations as made by West Virginia teachers for work with disadvantaged children.

The final report will be published by the national organizations for distribution to teachers all over the U.S.

Mrs. Daugherty will submit the tabulations and information from the regional meeting at Triadelphia for the statewide survey.

City Planners Discuss 3 Meetings On Zoning

Preparations for a series of three public meetings on the proposed zoning regulations for East Liverpool were outlined at a meeting of the City Planning Commission Monday night at the City Hall.

The sessions will be held Monday at East Junior High School, Wednesday at Lincoln School and Friday night at Westgate School.

George Steele, vice president, presided in the absence of Don Eckert, commission chairman.

A letter from the Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission concerning its finances, requested by the city group recently, was read and approved.

Beaver Local Board Hires New Teacher

The Beaver Local School District Board of Education Monday night hired a new teacher, approved several cooks and bus drivers and took under study bids for heating the new school bus garage.

Miss Alice M. Festa of Youngstown was employed as a sixth-grade teacher for the Public School, replacing William Compston of Hookstown, who resigned to take a post in industry.

Mrs. Vida Galbreath of Rogers, cook at the Public School, retired, and four substitute cooks were named — Mrs. Gladys Hostetter of Rogers, Mrs. Sue Reynolds of West Point and Mrs. Evelyn Copestick and Mrs. June Laughlin of Calcutta.

Salary increases were granted three teachers who have received degrees or advanced in professional status. They are Ernest MacKenzie and William Patton of East Liverpool and Mrs. Martha Sprague of Lisbon.

Dean Bowman of Elkton and Mark Manning of Lisbon were hired as bus drivers and Robert Simms of the Bell School Rd., Otis Stewart of Rudibaugh Rd. and Kenneth Butcher of Annesley Rd. were named substitute drivers.

The transportation committee headed by Art Doak took under study bids for heating the new bus garage. Three firms submitted five bids — some for both oil and gas — which ranged from $800 to $3,600.

The board granted Supt. Roy Cashdollar authority to sell a 1953 station wagon of the school which is no longer used. Students Jack Ludwig, Gary Hays and Robert Drane were given permits to leave school early in afternoons for work.

The next meeting will be Oct. 3.

Legion Post 374 Given Reports

James H. Cregar, 10th District first vice commander, reported on the national convention which he attended in August at Washington, during the meeting of American Legion Post 374 Monday night.

William Reagle, second vice commander, presided.

Comdr. Vince McGeehan opened the meeting and heard a report from Densel McKinney that 76 members are listed on the post roster for 1967.

Refreshments were served by the kitchen committee.

A dance will be held at the post Saturday from 10 p.m. until 1 a.m.

The next meeting will be Sept. 19.

Dysert Fills Vacancy On Wellsville's Board

Russell Dysert of 969 Main St., a construction supervisor, was appointed to the Wellsville Board of Education Tuesday night to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Margaret Lloyd.

A former member of the board, Dysert was selected over six other candidates. He served for many years previously, including the positions of both president and vice president.

Dysert was defeated for a new term at the last general election.

Mrs. Lloyd resigned at the last meeting to accept a job as a teacher.

Dysert was notified of his appointment and asked to attend the meeting. He was administered the oath of office by Raymond Rolley, clerk.

He will serve the remainder of Mrs. Lloyd's term, which would have expired Dec. 31, 1967.

Applications for the post were received from Robert E. Miller of 1505 Commerce St., a former janitor at MacDonald; the Rev. I. Melville Wohrley of the First Methodist Church; Vincent W. Fiber of Russell Heights; William J. Telzrow Jr., assitant city solicitor; Harold Reed of Russell Heights, and Mrs. Betty Corbisello of Main St.

The selection was announced after a brief caucus session.

William Ferrall, board president, asked all those who did not receive the appointment to reapply should another vacancy occur.

Daniel Mason, board member, was absent. The other members are Dr. Janis Lauva and Daniel MacLean.

There are about 210 religious faiths in the U.S. with memberships of 50,000 or more.

Additional Data Listed After East End Entry

Additional data was entered on a police report Monday concerning investigation of an entry at an East End service station in which $800 to $900 in cash and checks were stolen.

Police said the loot taken from the Pridemore Gulf Service Station at 1120 Pennsylvania Ave. was contained in two cloth money bags stamped with the name of the Potters Bank & Trust Co.

One of the bags is of green cloth and closes with a zipper and a lock. The other is of brown cloth and closes with draw strings.

In the initial report, officers said the intruder entered the front door Sunday night or early Monday by using a key and removed the cash and checks from a hiding place inside the station. The supplemental report said the thief apparently left via a rear storage room, as it also was found unlocked. The station is owned by James Pridemore of the Valley Trailer Court.

County Home Workers Get Pay Increase

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners voted a $10-a-month pay increase Thursday for 42 employees at the County Home, effective Oct. 1.

The raise applies to all workers except the superintendent, matron and registered nurse.

The Lyle Printing & Publishing Co. of Salem received a contract to furnish 50,000 tax receipts for the county treasurer's office on a low bid of $429.50. The other proposal was $627 from the Columbus Blank Book Co.

Commissioners purchased a 35,000 BTU gas heater from the Lisbon Plumbing and Heating Center for $228.64. It will be used in the Community Action Committee office in the Welfare Department building.

Dr. R. H. Brown, director of the Ohio Tuberculosis Hospital at Columbus, advised the county by letter of an increase in the cost of dentures. He said the dental department has increased the cost of a full set from $72 to $87. All other dental care is provided without charge.

Commissioners authorized travel allowances to:

Ed Hedrick, Juvenile Court probation officer, $48.50 to transport two juveniles from the Ohio Youth Commission to Juvenile Court here; Robert Bycroft, county welfare director, $25 to attend state meetings in Columbus Wednesday and Thursday; a representative of the Children's School and Workshop, $25 to attend state meetings Wednesday and Thursday at Columbus; and Walter McCoy, Soldiers Relief Commission service officer, $33.20 to take a patient to a VA hospital and check on claims at the regional office in Cleveland.

Stock Market Has Best Gain In 14 Months

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market has scored its best gain in more than 14 months, with prices surging forward throughout the list.

Wall Street analysts said various Washington proposals and statements regarding the nation's tight money squeeze had cleared the air around the securities market. The analysts said some investors apparently felt market maladjustments were being repaired.

Glamour stocks—airlines, aerospace, office equipment, photography, and electronics—led the advance Monday.

Polaroid, the day's most active stock, was up $8.75 a share to $146.62.

Key stocks in other groups—motors, steels, chemicals, utilities, rails, and electrical equipment—also posted gains. These ran to about $1 and $2 but Eastman Kodak, a blue chip, leaped $6.25 to $119.

General Motors jumped $2.12 to $74.12 on GM's prediction of 1967 sales of nine million cars.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks rose Monday 15.04 points to 790.59. This was the largest gain since June 30, 1965, when it advanced 16.63 points.

Wife Drops Charges Of Phone Harassment

Acting at the request of the complaining witness, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today dismissed an affidavit in which an East Liverpool man was accused of using the telephone to "harass" his estranged wife, who resides in the Hookstown area.

He dismissed the affidavit filed against Kenneth Bright of 142 W. 6th St. by his wife, Mrs. Nancy Ruth Bright of Hookstown R.D. 1. The affidavit said Bright telephoned his wife nine times on Sept. 1 "for the sole purpose of harassing her and her family."

The woman commented that she only wants to be left alone. The husband promised the judge he will not telephone his wife in the future "or communicate with her in any other way." He was represented by Bernard Pineman.

'Fair Share' Guidelines Set For Beaver Drive

The United Funds of Beaver County Fair Share Committee announced guidelines for giving by both corporations and individuals in preparation for the kickoff of the 1966-67 campaign.

Kay Kluz, District 20 Director of the United Steelworkers of America, is chairman of the Fair Share Committee. He said "United Fund agencies serve everyone in Beaver County and, in turn, deserve the support on an equitable basis from all citizens. The Fair Share Committee provides guidelines for giving to the single campaign that finances more than 99 per cent of the voluntary agencies in the county. We hope that all of our citizens pledge to the United Fund and make their pledge on a fair share basis."

The suggested fair share standards for UF corporate giving are based on a per-employee amount for various types of business. The 1966-67 standards are: Building trades, $11 per employee; commercial banks, $30; engineering, $16; investment and loan companies, $16; manufacturing, $5.00; real estate and insurance, $14; retail trade, $8; savings and loans, $42; transportation, $8, and utilities and communications, $13. These standards are based on giving in Beaver County during the past years and are not national averages.

Individual giving standards range from 1/2 to 1 hour's pay per month for employees earning less than $10,000 annually, 1 per cent for persons earning $10,000 to $20,000 annually and 1 1/2 per cent for persons with incomes in excess of $20,000.

To encourage more people to give at fair share level a Fair Share Leaders Club has been formed. The club, symbolized by a gold check pin, urges individuals to make their United Fund pledge at the top of the fair share giving range.

The Fair Share Committee also will recognize outstanding corporate and employee United Fund solicitation through a pacesetter program. Special recognition is given to those firms and their employees whose total giving is equal to a fair share corporate pledge plus 85 per cent of their employees averaging one-half hour pay per month for 12 months.

ROUTE '66

UCLA GETS ROLLING AGAIN BEHIND GARY BEBAN.

UCLA Strong Choice For National Title

By SANDY PADWE
NEW YORK — (NEA) — By the end of the football season, UCLA could have the first half of an unprecedented collegiate sports double.

No school has won a national football and a national basketball championship in the same year, but the Bruins have an excellent chance to do both.

(The basketball analysis will have to wait until November; the name Lew Alcindor, height 7-1, will suffice as the prime explanation until then.)

Tommy Prothro, the UCLA football coach, has 30 lettermen returning from the team that defeated Michigan State, 14-12, in the Rose Bowl last New Year's Day.

THOUGH statistics about lettermen have been known to deceive, Prothro's 30 are strong, solid football players.

It is this depth, plus such individual standouts as quarterback Gary Beban, halfback Mel Farr, guard John Richardson and linebacker Dallas Grider that give the Bruins the edge as the nation's top team.

The Bruins will be followed in the top five by Arkansas, Alabama, Michigan State and Syracuse. The second five includes Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Nebraska, Tennessee and North Carolina.

UCLA will have a difficult path to the championship. The Bruins have a truly national schedule which includes Pitt, Syracuse, Missouri, Rice, Penn State, California, Air Force, Washington, Stanford and Southern California.

The key, of course, is Beban. As a sophomore last season, he made the NEA second-team All-America behind Bob Griese of Purdue. It was the only national recognition accorded the sensational newcomer.

Gary set three school records in 1965 — yards passing (1,483), touchdowns (14) and total offense (2,073). Five times he had 200 or more yards total offense, including a 282-yard performance against Washington.

FARR, at left half, also had an exceptional season, carrying 122 times for 821 yards, an average of 6.7 yards per carry. Beban was the No. 2 rusher with 590 yards in 194 carries. Richardson and Grider are the top performers on the defensive platoon.

Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas has the personnel to match UCLA.

Jon Brittenum is Beban's equal at quarterback. Harry Jones is a destructive runner from his wingback position, and Lloyd Phillips was an All-America tackle last season.

BROYLES has experience at 19 of the 22 starting spots. The only sophomores are at strong-side guard, tailback and right halfback on defense.

Again, Arkansas' main test will be against Texas Oct. 15 at Austin.

Alabama will be after its third straight national championship, but the Tide may have problems replacing Steve Sloan at quarterback, Paul Crane at center and Steve Bowman at fullback.

A big plus for Bear Bryant is the fine group of receivers led by Ray Perkins at weak-side end and Dennis Homan at flanker.

"TO SHOW you what I mean by lack of depth," moans Michigan State's Duffy Daugherty, "we have no returning lettermen at center or guard."

There isn't much sympathy for Duffy. He has only four All-America choices returning — halfback Clint Jones, defensive back George Webster, offensive end Gene Washington and defensive end Bubba Smith.

Also returning are such standouts as fullback Bob Apisa, kicking specialist Dick Kenney and offensive tackle Jerry West.

Somehow, the coaches around the country can't get too upset over Duffy's problems with interior linemen. He always manages to plug the holes.

SYRACUSE has a major test against UCLA September 24, a game which could be one of the best this season. Floyd Little vs. Farr and Beban is an extremely attractive pairing. Little is the most exciting outside threat in the country.

If Notre Dame comes up with a solid quarterback — and sophomore Terry Hanratty is considered just that — the Irish could be battling for an unbeaten season when they meet Michigan State Nov. 19. Nick Eddy and Larry Conjar, the leading rushers last season, provide the offensive power while captain and linebacker Jim Lynch leads the defensive platoon.

GEORGIA TECH has Kim King back at quarterback and the rest of the 1965 starting backfield which had some exciting moments last season. The defense, however, was a problem in 1965, but it received most of the attention in spring drills and is expected to be vastly improved. If it comes close to matching the offense, Tech will be even stronger.

Nebraska has most of its starters returning, including quarterback Bob Church and halfback Harry Wilson. Bob Devaney must find replacements at end to make his club as strong as last season, when it finished unbeaten before losing to Alabama in the Orange Bowl.

TENNESSEE is the long shot. With sophomores at key positions last year, the Vols finished 8-1-2. Dewey Warren and Charley Fulton provided themselves at quarterback last season. An exciting addition to the 1966 squad is hurdler Richmond Flowers Jr., who is fighting for a starting job at wingback.

Three seasons ago, North Carolina finished 9-2 with a win over Air Force in the Gator Bowl. Coach Jim Hickey feels his team has the potential to equal (or maybe better) that showing. Much will depend on quarterback Danny Talbot, considered the finest all-around back at Chapel Hill since Charley Justice.

Dodgers Nip Mets, Boost Lead To 1½

Fregosi Bats In 5, Angels Beat Orioles

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Black Maxers have dived underground, but the Blue Berets are soaring higher and higher.

Two members of the Blue Berets, relief pitchers Ron Perranoski and Phil Regan, wiped out the New York Mets Monday night and helped the Los Angeles Dodgers to their fifth straight victory, a 3-2 decision.

The triumph increased the Dodgers' National League lead to 1½ games over second-place Pittsburgh and 2½ over third-place San Francisco, both idle. In the only other game, California edged American League-leading Baltimore 6-5.

The Black Maxers are — were possibly may be more accurate — a group of Pittsburgh Pirates whose viewing of the film, "The Blue Max", triggered post-victory clubhouse antics that involved such wearing apparel as imitation German medals, World War I flying helmets and floppy hats.

The Maxers, however, toned down their victory celebrations after the antics were criticized.

The Blue Berets, on the other hand, carry out their antics on the field, and the only criticism they get is from the teams they beat.

The Berets, the Dodgers' brilliant relief corps that received the name because of the team's blue hats, merely sit out in the bullpen, wait until a Dodger pitcher gets trapped in the middle of enemy fire, then come in and snuff out the threat.

Regan, whose 13 victories and 16 saves make him the best Beret, even wrote a fight song for the group, a parody of the song of the Green Berets, a branch of the U.S. Army now fighting in Viet Nam.

Perranoski and Regan got the call Monday night with the Dodgers trailing 2-1. Perranoski struck out the first six men he faced, tying a league record for relievers, then blanked the Mets for two more innings, as Los Angeles grabbed a 3-2 lead.

When the left-hander gave up a leadoff single to Ken Boyer in the ninth, Manager Walter Alston called on Regan. The right-hander got pinch hitter Chuck Hiller to force Boyer at second, then ended the game by inducing Cleon Jones to ground into a double play.

Jim Fregosi drove in five California runs with a double and a grand-slam homer, but the Angels needed a disputed run in the eighth inning for the victory over the Orioles, who dropped their fourth straight game.

Bob Rodgers dashed home from third as second baseman Dave Johnson threw out Willie Smith at first and slid under the throw home from first baseman Boog Powell. The Orioles argued vehemently and unsuccessfully that Rodgers was out.

Yesterday's Stars

BATTING — Jim Fregosi, Angels, drove in five runs with a grand-slam homer and a double as the California edged Baltimore 6-5.

PITCHING — Ron Perranoski, Dodgers, pitched four shut-out innings in relief, helping National League-leading Los Angeles to its fifth straight victory, a 3-2 decision over the New York Mets.

Face Texas In Test Saturday

Trojans Rated As Strong 'Roses' Contender Again

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California's Trojans, beaten out of the Rose Bowl assignment in the final four minutes of the deciding game last November, will again be a powerful contender in the race this autumn.

The Trojans get their first test Saturday at Austin against a highly regarded Texas Longhorn team, and it could be a rough one. Ten years ago at Austin, the last time the teams met, the Trojans ran off with the contest, 44-20.

Texans, Trojan Coach John McKay has been advised, have long memories.

The 1966 warriors of Troy are large and reasonably fast and McKay says he has more backfield depth than he's ever had in his six years at Southern Cal.

This is fortunate because it'll take such depth to replace one graduated star, All-America, Heisman Trophy winner, halfback Mike Garrett.

On the Garrett left side McKay is depending upon three men, Don McCall, Wilson Bowie and Steve Grady. Bowie is a sophomore, McCall a senior and Grady a junior.

Troy Winslow, a senior, is the No. 1 quarterback. Somewhat overlooked when honors were passed around last year, Winslow, however, is a very important cog in the grid machine.

He passed for 11 touchdowns, completed 61 per cent of his throws and ran for 319 yards. Winslow's pass receivers include Sherman, senior Ray Cahill, Jim Lawrence and an outstanding junior college transfer from nearby Fullerton, Rich Leon.

Up front on offense is right guard Jim Homan, the lone returning starter. But he'll be joined by Ron Yary, at 6-6 and 265 pounds plus the biggest man on the team, who was switched this fall from defense to offense.

The Trojans, who were 7-2-1 in 1966, after Texas, meet Wisconsin, Oregon State, Washington, Stanford, Clemson, Miami, California, UCLA and Notre Dame.

Mrs. Crable's 92 Wins Ladies Golf

Saturday's medal play for ladies went to Mrs. Rick Crable who fired low gross of 47-45-92 at the Country Club.

Mrs. J. R. McLaren recorded low net of 104-66-68 and Mrs. William Pickin won the putting with 33.

The second division was won by Mrs. Arthur Doak who grossed 58 and Mrs. R. T. McDaniel had low net of 60-20-40.

Mrs. Robert Williams won the putting with 17.

Cazzie Russell's Signed By Knicks

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Knicks, doormats of the National Basketball Association the past seven years, may have unlocked the door to the playoffs with the acquisition of Cazzie Russell, 1965's college basketball player of the year.

"We've now got a real good, young basketball team," said

Eddie Donovan, general manager of the Knicks, who have not made the playoff since 1959. "We don't expect Cazzie to tear up the league, but we have a lot of hope for him."

The Knicks announced Monday that the former Michigan star had come to terms. Neither the amount nor the length of the contract was disclosed, but it was reported that the 6-foot-5½, two-time All-America will receive more than $200,000 spread over a long-term contract.

Russell was scheduled to report to the Knicks' training camp at Cornwall-on-Hudson, N.Y., today. He hasn't signed, but a club spokesman said this was a mere formality.

"We will start him off in the guard position," said Donovan. "We're not looking for him to take us out of the doldrums single-handedly. But we've got a good nucleus now with Willis Reed, Walt Bellamy, Dave Stallworth, Howard Komives and Dick Van Arsdale."

The Knicks, who made Russell their No. 1 selection in the NBA draft, outbid the Harlem Globetrotters, who also were after the services of the 22-year-old Russell.

"I'm no comedian," the newest Knick said. "I was seriously considering playing for the Trotters, but I'm going to enjoy the brand of ball they play in the NBA, and I'm looking forward to playing against Oscar Robertson, Bill Russell and Sam Jones."

The nation's third-leading scorer with 800 points and a 30.8 average last season, Cazzie finished his three-year career at Michigan with 2,164 points, the highest total in Big Ten history and the 13th highest in history among major college scorers.

Clay, Williams Expected To Sign For Fall Battle

HOUSTON (AP) — Cassius Clay and Houston's Cleveland Williams are expected to appear in the Astrodome within the week, armed with ink pens instead of boxing gloves.

Promoter Earl Gilliam of Texas Boxing Enterprises confirmed Monday that Clay, the 24-year-old unbeaten heavyweight champion, and Williams, 33, have agreed to fight in the Astrodome in November.

They still must sign a formal contract approved by the Texas Boxing Commission. Gilliam said they will sign it in the Astrodome "within a few days," adding that although the commission has not yet approved the match, he feels sure it will.

Target date for the fight is either Nov. 14 or 15, Gilliam said.

Generally called the world heavyweight champion even though he is ranked only the No. 1 challenger by the World Boxing Association, Clay successfully defended his title last Saturday by defeating European champion Karl Mildenberger on a technical knockout in the 12th round at Frankfurt, Germany.

In his most recent fight, Williams stopped former Texas heavyweight champion Tod Herring last June. It was Williams' fourth straight comeback victory.

Williams was ranked No. 2 in the world, Gilliam said, before he was wounded in an altercation with a highway patrolman in 1964. He currently is listed among the top 10 fighters.

Miami Rated As Favorite In M-A Race

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Miami (Ohio) is the choice to capture the Mid-American Conference football championship, a poll conducted by the MAC News Media Association showed today.

Finishing no worse than third on any ballot, Coach Bo Schembechler's Redskins mustered the most support in the pre-season poll.

Bowling Green, which shared the 1965 championship with Miami, was picked second by the writers and broadcasters.

Toledo shaded Kent State for third place in a close contest. Western Michigan was tabbed fifth. Ohio University sixth and Marshall last.

All Mid-Am teams except Bowling Green play their season openers Saturday. Ohio U. visits Purdue. Miami goes to Indiana. Kent entertains Buffalo. Marshall is at Morehead, Ky. Western Michigan plays host to Lamar Tech and Toledo is at home to rugged Xavier.

Officers will be installed Oct. 13 at the Wayne Township grange at a joint ceremony with its officers.

The installing team will be from West Point grange. The Juvenile Grange has voted to donate $50 to the Subordinate Grange for trays.

The next grange meeting will be Sept. 22.

Various Actions Taken In St. Clair

The purchase of 500 feet of snow fence and 100 feet of 12-inch concrete pipe for stock was authorized by the St. Clair Township trustees at a meeting Monday night.

The trustees accepted the plat for the First Addition of Beavercrest, a development 1½ miles north of Calcutta along Route 170 owned by Robert Trotter. The plat will be submitted to the county commissioners.

Requests for repair work on the Cannons Mills Rd. and various streets in Oakmont were approved.

It was reported the Ohio Department of Traffic Safety plans to have a representative study proposed erections of speed limit signs at sites in the township. Residents who signed to participate in the road resurfacing program were reminded Monday will be the final deadline on payments.

Bills totaling $2,154 were paid.

Woman Grocer, 68, Foils Youths' Holdup

OLD BATH, Ind. (AP) — "Put all your money in a bag," two youths with guns ordered grocery owner Grace Miller.

The 68-year-old woman, barely 5-foot, grabbed the barrel of one youth's 22-caliber revolver Monday and scuffled with the teen-agers. The youths fled and were picked up by police two hours later after Mrs. Miller reported their auto license number.

"They thought they had somebody who was easy," she said. "But I wasn't."

Ohio Marine Killed On Viet Nam Patrol

CINCINNATI (AP) — The latest Ohioan to die in Viet Nam is a Marine lance corporal killed Friday while on patrol near Quang Tri.

Lance Cpl. Leroy Williams, 18, Cincinnati, joined the Marines last year two days after graduating from Central High School. His mother, Mrs. Lula Williams, was notified of his death Monday.

The board pointed out voters may register at the Courthouse in New Cumberland, explaining that the additional facilities have been set up as a service to the voters.

Members explained that since the Courthouse is available no added registration facilities were provided for New Cumberland. The Courthouse is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. until 4 and Saturday from 9 until noon.

Bus Safety Talk Features Opening Of Snyder PTA

A program on "School Bus Safety" highlighted the first meeting of the new term of the Ray Snyder Parent-Teacher Association at the school in Industry.

Trooper Charles H. Veil of the Pennsylvania state police screened a film on safety rules and conducted a question-and-answer period.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Phillip Graham was appointed to form a committee to seek aid from the AAA to set up a student patrol system to work with bus drivers, following a pattern shown in the film.

Mrs. Robert Loefer, president, conducted business.

Principal Donald Bradshaw introduced teachers and welcomed all parents.

Mrs. George Anderson read letters from the Dixmont State Hospital asking for volunteer workers and from the Beaver County Cancer Society offering programs and speakers.

A report on plans for the annual bazaar was given by the ways and means co-chairman, Mrs. Irene Tichy. Oct. 22 was announced as a tentative date for the all-day affair in the school, featuring a variety of games, prizes, baked goods, lunches and items for sale.

Programs for the term were announced by Mrs. George Tomocheck.

Mrs. Lincbar reported that the combined meeting this year with the Fairview and Logan PTA's will be held in the Snyder building.

Homeroom mothers were announced by Mrs. George Kelly. Three parties will be sponsored at Halloween, Christmas and Valentine's Day.

Mrs. Woodrow Pflugh, librarian, asked for volunteer workers. The library will be open each Wednesday.

Miss Patty McMillan's second grade won the attendance banner. Mrs. John Dawson, membership chairman, reported 46 members present.

The next meeting will be Oct. 13 at 8 p.m. in the school.

350 Take Part In 4-H Event

LISBON — Nearly 350 young people attended Columbiana County's annual 4-H rally Monday night at the Lisbon fairgrounds.

Robert Lewis, county extension agent for 4-H, said the event marks the end of one 4-H year and the beginning of another.

The Junior Leadership Club was in charge of recreation and Gary Wilms of Columbiana led group singing.

Dave Holmes of Winona, JLC president, presented gold, silver and bronze awards to 30 clubs which won honors this year.

The Rev. Paul T. Gerrard of the First Presbyterian Church of Lisbon spoke.

Mary Miller and Karen Cook of Columbiana, Judy Converse of Leetonia, Gary Booth of New Waterford and Larry Kuyper of Winona conducted a candle-lighting ceremony.

A wiener roast and square dancing followed. Tom Rudebock of Leetonia called for dancing.

Drive Prepared For School Levy At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Plans for a campaign to support the proposed renewal of a 44-mill school levy were discussed during a meeting of the East Palestine Board of Education Monday night.

Mrs. Ray Mollenkopf of 328 E. Grant St. was hired as a full-time bus driver.

Mrs. Pauline Justice was hired as a part-time employee for the cafeteria at the Negley School and Mrs. Pearl Sutherland for the high school cafeteria.

The board approved the purchase of a phonograph for the foreign language department and a microscope for the biology department under the Title 3 program.

Permission was granted Mrs. Matilda Madden and Dale Rumburg, special education teachers, to attend a meeting Oct. 1 at Columbus.

Wellsville Twins Serve Air Force

Airman 3C Darius Hoffman and Airman 3C David Hoffman, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bruce Hoffman of 816 Broadway, Wellsville, are serving in the Air Force.

Darius is stationed at the Hahn base in Germany, where he is receiving schooling in aircraft mechanics and studying German under a language extension course from the University of Maryland. He is planning trips to Spain and Africa.

David, stationed at Forbes field, Topeka, Kan., is an air patrolman.

Another of the four Hoffman sons, Robert, and his wife, Lou, will visit his parents en route home to Kent, Ohio, from a month's camping trip to Seattle, Wash., Montana and Alaska.

Both are instructors at Kent State University. Robert teaching biology and his wife health.

Phillip Hoffman is planning a visit to Des Moines, Iowa, with his wife Lynda and son Mark, who are visiting her parents.

Company Plans Move

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Crawford Steel Construction Co. plans to move its manufacturing operations from suburban Silverton to Hamilton.

Frank Young, executive vice president of the steel firm, said the move will take place next month, but the company office will remain in Cincinnati. Crawford has about 100 employees.

Out Of The Air

By RICHARD K. DOAN
Rodgers Won't Nurse A Peeve

Noted composer Richard Rodgers obviously is not one to nurse a peeve.

He has just entered into a deal with NBC to write the music and lyrics for a 90-minute musical adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's play, "Androcles and the Lion." It will be presented as a 90-minute TV special next spring.

Richard Doan as a 90-minute TV special next spring.

ONLY A FEW DAYS ago Rodgers, as president and managing director of the Music Theater of Lincoln Center in New York, pulled the rug from under NBC for what he regarded as a premature announcement that the network would televise a performance of the Music Theater's current revival of the Broadway musical, "Annie, Get Your Gun," starring Ethel Merman.

Rodgers said the announcement was "very embarrassing." He called off the deal.

"Androcles" will be Rodgers' first work for TV since he and the late Oscar Hammerstein II wrote a TV musical version of "Cinderella" for CBS in the late 1950s.

RODGERS already had made another commitment for the forthcoming season, however, agreeing to do the score for a filmed entertainment documentary, "Saturday Night Around the World," booked by NBC.

It will be produced by Rodgers' son-in-law, Dan Melnick, and his partner, David Susskind.

Shaw wrote "Androcles," about Christian martyrs thrown to the Roman lions, 52 years ago. It had a Broadway revival in 1961. Alan Young played Androcles in a 1953 movie and Bert Lahr was seen in the role in a sequence of "Omnibus" on TV in 1956.

THERE ARE SIGNS that the Ford Foundation means to put plenty of push behind its Aug. 1 proposal that the Federal Communications Commission authorize a nonprofit TV satellite system to finance educational television.

Announcement will be made any moment that Ben Kubasick, director of press information for CBS News, is leaving that post to join the Ford group in a similar capacity specifically serving the satellite proposal. Kubasick, a former newspaper critic of TV, thus again will be associated with Fred W. Friendly, who joined the foundation as TV consultant last March after quitting the presidency of CBS News.

Friendly was the architect of the Ford proposal, although its chief spokesman is McGeorge Bundy, the former White House adviser who became foundation president in March.

BUNDY repeatedly has denied that the foundation itself intends to get into the operation of a satellite system, but informed observers initially felt he would ask his board of directors for "seed money" in the millions of dollars, if necessary, to get such a system launched.

Now that the Communications Satellite Corp. (Comsat) is reported preparing to offer to lift an "all-purpose" satellite system which would levy an educational TV tax on all commercial users (i.e., telephone and telegraph carriers, data processors, TV and radio), Bundy is believed thinking of directing the foundation's efforts toward setting up an ETV programming service.

It's expected that domestic satellite TV, as a means of relaying programs from networks to stations in this country, will not be a reality for at least three years.

Negro Youths Go On Wild Spree In Iowa

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — An estimated 300 Negro youths went on a wild rampage on Des Moines' near Northwest Side late Monday night, breaking windows and destroying property within an eight-block area.

The spree of destruction broke out after a high school cerebral palsy benefit football game at Drake Stadium, police said, when a mob of youths started obstructing traffic, poking fists through car windows at occupants and throwing objects at cars. Some 12,000 persons attended the game.

Sgt. Stanton Rodgers was struck in the back by a piece of broken cement about six inches square that had been hurled through the rear window of his police car. He was not seriously hurt.

Two youths reportedly suffered minor injuries.

Rodgers said he called for help, and police cars near the stadium moved in and kept the mob in motion as they moved down a street that borders the football field.

At least 12 private cars in the area were damaged, and about 10 homes had broken windows, police said. Three police cars were dented by flying objects.

Several blocks east of the stadium, the crowd milled around a drug store and broke two large plate-glass windows.

Store officials said a number of youths moved into the store and looted merchandise before police could clear them out.

Police managed to disperse the crowd early this morning, although there were periodic reports that rocks and bottles were being tossed at passing cars.

The area is near Good Park, scene of several outbreaks of violence earlier this summer.

First $50,000 Stouffer Prize Shared By Two

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Cleveland physician and a German chemist are the first winners of the annual $50,000 Stouffer Prize, it was announced today.

Dr. Harry Goldblatt, 75, of Mount Sinai Hospital here and Dr. Ernst Klenk, 70, of the University of Cologne received the prize for their pioneering research into high blood pressure and hardening of the arteries, the leading killer diseases in industrialized countries.

The prize, established earlier this year by the Vernon Stouffer Foundation, is one of the richest in medicine, topped sometimes only by the Nobel Prize in medicine, whose monetary value varies.

It was set up to recognize major contributions toward preventing or treating hypertension or high blood pressure, and arteriosclerosis, or hardening of arteries, which underlies many or most cases of heart attacks and strokes.

Allegheny Group To Hold Meeting

Dr. Forrest H. Kirkpatrick, vice president and secretary of the Wheeling Steel Corp., will be the principal speaker at the 95th meeting of the Allegheny Regional Advisory Board at Wilson Lodge, Oglebay Park, Wheeling, Thursday.

His subject will be "On The Agenda For Today."

The advisory board's membership includes representatives of traffic and transportation and officials of industry, agriculture and commerce. They discuss mutual transportation problems and study methods for improving service.

Advisory board committee meetings will be held Wednesday, beginning at 9:15 a.m., and continue throughout the day. The general board meeting will be held Thursday, beginning at 9:30 a.m. and concluding with the luncheon session at 12:30 p.m.

William B. Guffey, traffic manager for the United Engineering & Foundry Co. of Pittsburgh and general chairman of the board, will preside during the two-day meeting.

Volunteer Workers Needed For Library

The first meeting of the Industry Parent - Teacher Association will be held in the school Oct. 6 at 8 p. m. Fifty-grade mothers will serve as hostesses. Mrs. Stephen Hazy, president, will conduct business.

The executive board will meet Nov. 17 at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Haswell on the Midland-Beaver Rd.

At Ohio Board Meeting Bus Distributors Warn Of Costs Under New Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bus distributors evidently laying groundwork for further court challenge of Ohio's new centralized school bus buying plan warned Monday that participating districts will run into costs offsetting much of their savings.

Spokesmen testified to that effect at the State Board of Education's monthly meeting during discussion on rules to govern operation of the central bidding plan.

Under the statewide system, testified the Ohio Department of Education's Chief of Pupil Transportation, Hanford Combs, individual districts and the state could save as much as $12 million over the next five years.

But dealers representatives replied that if the plan holds up, dealers will have to raise charges for repairs and parts. Districts, they contended, also would lose their trade-in price on worn-out buses, ranging usually from $800 to $1,250.

The plan exists now only as an emergency measure pushed through this summer to meet a threatened extreme shortage of school buses.

But the board is expected to enact the regulations as permanent at its next meeting.

In other business, a report showed that 9,259 teaching certificates were issued or renewed

To Warn Against Overconfidence

GOP Aspirants Continue Drives In Northwest Ohio

VAN WERT, Ohio (AP) — Republican candidates continued their campaign in northwest Ohio today on a statewide tour that apparently will include repeated top - level warnings against overconfidence.

Gov. James A. Rhodes and his party of other statewide candidates were due to start the day in Celina, Sidney and Wapakoneta before returning to Columbus tonight.

Rhodes indicated on the first day of the "Report to the People" tour that he thinks apathy and complacency may be the biggest worries facing the GOP.

He and the other candidates swung through five central and northwest counties setting the tone for their campaign. This was emphasized Monday night at Findlay before an estimated 200 local party workers.

The governor opened up with a pep talk that underscored what he apparently thinks is needed for an effective campaign.

The governor repeated many of the same remarks he had made earlier, asking for support for his "jobs and progress program."

Glasgow Patrons Given Request To Conserve Water

Mayor Charles Childs and the Glasgow Borough Council today joined in a new appeal to the 25 water consumers in the tiny borough to conserve water use as much as possible until fall rains help replenish the supply in the spring that feeds the system.

The officials requested that residents halt auto washing until the supply is replenished. In addition, they asked each household to check his line for leaks, thinking that some of the water may be escaping through holes in the pipes.

The mayor pointed out the original request for conservation of water was issued after the Council meeting Sept. 3. The supply is stored in two metal tanks which hold 3,000 gallons apiece. Because of recent dry weather, the supply has been "barely holding its own," he said.

The water service is free, as the customers are not billed by the borough.

Cincinnati Minister Due Nomination

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Rev. Morris Fairchild Arnold, 51, rector of Christ Church, Cincinnati, was among eight men expected to be nominated today to succeed Bishop James A. Pike as bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California.

Nearly 700 lay and clergy delegates convened here to elect the new leader. Bishop Pike is resigning to join the staff of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, Santa Barbara, Calif.

Red Guards Facing Stiff Resistance

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's Red Guards are meeting stiff resistance as they push the cultural revolution from Peking into the countryside, Japanese correspondents reported today.

They reported that a crowd of 100,000 battled the youthful guards at Kweilin in southern China when the reformers demanded the resignation of the city's mayor and that army troops were called in to restore order.

In another development, Peking's official New China News Agency indicated that Premier Chou En-lai has been removed from his post as vice chairman of the Chinese Communist party. However, he apparently retained the premiership.

The Japanese correspondents reported from Peking that the clash at Kweilin, a city some 250 miles northwest of Canton, was one of several in a number of cities involving the Red Guards and local peasants and laborers.

The clash at Kweilin was reported by the correspondent of Yomiuri Shimbun.

The Peking People's Daily said Monday the students have made "certain mistakes," but added "no matter what the pretext, fighting between the students and farmers and laborers must not be permitted."

The reports of violence indicated that official advice in the People's Daily urging the Red Guards to stop using force and asking others to accept the cultural revolution was not taking effect.

Chou's removal from his post as vice chairman was indicated by the New China News Agency when it failed to mention that post as one of his responsibilities. However, Chou was included on the Politburo's powerful standing committee in the latest list of government leaders.

From Hong Kong came reports from travelers to Red China of mass suicides last month in Canton and Shanghai due to molestation by the Red Guards.

Pay Increase Averts Ironton Worker Strike

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — Municipal employees, 39, of them who had threatened to strike today, got pay raises Monday night at an emergency meeting of Ironton City Council.

The wage increase averting the walkout provides 7 per cent across the board for workers currently making $2.10 to $2.35 per hour.

A group of small pitchers, of clear glass or in harmonious shades of china or pottery, may be grouped, filled with flowers or leaves and used as a charming centerpiece for a dining table. Such pitchers — with some age, but not "antique" — may often be picked up at inexpensive prices.

4 Youths Sentenced In Kidnaping Of Girl

CINCINNATI (AP) — Four youths who pleaded guilty to kidnapping a 17-year-old Portsmouth girl have been sentenced to three years each in federal prison.

The sentence was passed Monday on Peter V. McClesse, 21, and his 19-year-old brother, Mitchell, of Portsmouth; Gary D. Brown, 19, Lynn, Ky., and Billy J. Duncan, 18, Springfield, Mich.

An FBI agent told the court the youths abducted the girl the weekend of July 4, 1965, after drinking with her. The girl was kicked out of a window of the youth's car after they had taken her across the Ohio River to Kentucky.

Experts Study Aftershocks Of U.S. Quake

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Scientists took to the field today to measure the aftershocks of a strong earthquake felt Monday in three states.

No deaths nor injuries were reported. The tremor was strongest in the Sierra near Reno and the California border. A slight shock also was felt in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dr. Alan S. Ryall, seismologist at the University of Nevada, planned to take a crew to a spot about 10 miles west of Reno to measure aftershocks. They'll attempt to pinpoint the center of the quake and the strength and direction of earth movements.

Damage was minor. Southern Pacific Railroad tracks were closed for seven hours by slides in the Sierra that brought down boulders as big as houses. Interstate 80 also collected its share of boulders.

The watermaster at Boca Dam in California escaped with his wife and child as parts of their house collapsed. The dam was not damaged. At the nearby Prosser Creek Dam on the Truckee River, a crack appeared on the crest and inspectors started looking closely at the earthen structure. They said there was no danger to Reno, 30 miles downstream.

The quake at 9:41 a.m. broke the seismograph at the University of Nevada. It was recorded at 6.5 on the Richter scale on the University of California seismograph in Berkeley. There is no theoretical top to the Richter scale, but 8.5 is the highest ever recorded.

The shaking lasted about one minute and aftershocks were felt for about two hours.

Plaster fell from the ceiling of the Nevada State Assembly at Carson City. The earthquake also jolted the California Capitol in Sacramento.

Noisy Outburst At School Leads To Arrest Of 12

NEW YORK (AP) — A noisy demonstration outside a Harlem junior high school as the school year opened has resulted in the arrest of 12 young members of the Black Panthers, a militant Negro nationalist group.

It was the only such incident in the city Monday as more than a million pupils trooped back to classrooms. Pickets in the group carried signs reading, "Be Strong Young Brother, the Panthers are Coming" and "The Black Community Must Control the Neighborhood Schools."

After a 45-minute demonstration outside the old cramped building on West 140th Street, police moved in and seized 12 persons for allegedly attempting to prevent children from attending the school. They were to be arraigned today.

Junior Editors Quiz on MINERALS

QUESTION: How do you identify minerals while on a field trip?

ANSWER: Being a "rockhound" (rock collector) is great fun. The study of rocks and the minerals they contain makes a wonderful hobby. You need a small guide book which tells about them—preferably one you can slip into your pocket. Take along a copper penny, a knife and a steel file. These will help to establish the hardness of the mineral, one of the chief ways of identifying them. Hardness is spoken of as a scale between 1 and 10 (with talc as 1 and diamond as 10). Hardness values of the penny, knife, etc., are given in our picture. Try scratching the penny with some bit of rock. If it scratches the penny, it is harder; if the penny scratches it, it is softer. By checking this way, the boys determined the hardness of some rocks they found to be right for quartz. Then they checked for color. It was brown, which made it look like the form of quartz called chalcedony. Next came the luster check, meaning brilliance, dullness, etc. The stones were very smooth, with a waxy feel, just the way chalcedony is described in the book. There are other tests, but these are the simplest. They may not be final, but they will help you to learn.

FOR YOU TO DO: Have some real fun testing stones. When you've scratched a stone, wipe it off to be sure it's a real scratch.

Flora Lu of Champaign, Ill., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Odd Facts

An accessory before the fact is one who helps plan or prepare for the crime, while an accessory after the fact is one who shields a criminal from the law after the crime has been committed.

Viewers 'Get The Picture' From CATV Of Ohio Valley

Local Organization Moves Into High Gear With Nearly 3,000 Signed For Service

The quality of television has improved vastly since residents of this area watched small, fuzzy images on 10-inch and 12-inch sets in the early 1950's, laughing at Milton Berle and being fascinated by wrestling.

But even today's sensitive television sets fail to provide the proper quality of reception in low-lying areas along the Ohio River and viewers who reside on higher locations often wish they had a wider range of stations to watch.

CATV of Ohio Valley, Inc., has invested almost a half million dollars worth of equipment into a cable television system which will provide clear, sharp images on 11 separate channels, plus a weather station, for East Liverpool and Wellsville residents.

MORE THAN 2,900 viewers already have signed for the cable and some 1,300 already are receiving the service.

The move to provide better television in East Liverpool was launched in 1964 when Rego Industries, now known as Viking Industries, approached city authorities about a franchise for a cable system.

The Neptune Broadcasting Co. of Steubenville, operators of television station WSTV, and Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc.—which publishes The Review, The Midland News and other newspapers in Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland and California—also became interested, and the three parties joined in a compromise agreement to operate CATV in the spring of 1965.

Construction was started last September by Systems Construction Co., a subsidiary of Viking, following a preliminary pole survey.

On a Pleasant Heights knoll 1,245 feet above sea level—about 400 feet above the downtown area—a 12-by-20-foot concrete block building to house the electronic equipment and an 80-foot antenna tower were erected.

The tower consists of three wooden poles on which the 10 separate TV antennas are mounted on two platforms—one at the 50-foot level, the other at 75 feet.

THE TELEVISION signals are received in the beam antennas aimed at Pittsburgh, Steubenville, Wheeling, Youngstown and Cleveland, and taken by lead-in wires to the amplifier and converter equipment in the building below.

This equipment rejects unwanted interference and converts the high-frequency signals to lower frequency signals better adapted to use on the cable distribution system.

The key to providing the signals to the householder's television set is the all-important coaxial cable which consists of a thin copper wire encased in plastic and a surrounded braided wire shield. It is this shield which prevents the static and other electrical interference from auto ignitions, neon lights and other television and radio signals from reaching the antenna wire.

Along the main distribution cable are amplifiers attached to the strand which supports the cable, where the signal—which decreases in intensity as it travels along the wire—is boosted. These amplifiers, with accompanying power supplies mounted on poles in 20-by-30-inch boxes, are located every 1,400 or 1,500 feet of the cable. There are nine such power supplies in East Liverpool, four in Wellsville.

In every neighborhood, distribution lines branch out from the trunk line and feeder lines—or "drops"—carry the signal into the customers' homes. A small transformer device is attached to the back of the television set to match the incoming signal with the set itself.

CONSTRUCTION of the cable began first in the Pleasant Heights area, then downtown, up to the Northside and throughout the rest of the community.

The coaxial cable itself is supported by a "messenger" wire to which the cable is lashed by a thin steel wire. The cables must be specified distances from the power and telephone lines on the same poles—40 inches below the Ohio Power Co. wires and 12 inches above the Ohio Bell Telephone wires—for safety and the necessary mechanical and electrical clearances.

More than 66 miles of cable are strung in East Liverpool, along with 300,000 feet of feeder lines to homes. There are 12 miles of cable already strung in Wellsville, where connection of the cable to homes will begin shortly.

John B. Hales, former Review pressman, became manager of the local system in January, succeeding William Webber who was appointed CATV manager for Brush-Moore, which has begun similar cable operations in North Canton, Marion and Hanover, Pa.

MASTER ANTENNA TOWER. Special beam antennas for each of the channels provided by CATV of Ohio Valley are on the 80-foot tower of the firm at its antenna site on Pleasant Heights. The amplifier and conversion equipment is in the concrete block structure at the base of the tower.

pay $4.70 a month if paid in the allowed time.

CATV agreed to return each of the cities 4 per cent of the rate, but East Liverpool Council decided to assign the percentage to the subscribers, thus the lower rate for East Liverpool.

Bills are mailed from the CATV office here the first of each month after the billings arrive from Canton, where they are computed by the Automated Business Machine Co., which uses IBM equipment to do billings for several cable television firms in the state.

Webber is the president of CATV of Ohio Valley, Les Rau of Steubenville is vice president,

Striking Warren Employees Spurn 3% Pay Increase

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Striking municipal employees here have rejected a city offer of an immediate 3 per cent pay increase and a 4 per cent wage increase effective Jan. 1.

No meeting was scheduled following Monday night's vote between city officials and the union as the strike was in its seventh day today. The strike affects some 240 employees of the city's sanitation, water, waste and streets and parks departments.

Another 310 city employees, including policemen and firemen, are not affected.

Officials of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees said the city's offer was not satisfactory. The union asked for immediate 7 per cent across-the-board increases in pay.

Collection of garbage has been halted since Wednesday everywhere but at hospitals. Salaried city employees kept operations moving in the other departments.

The crew members are Donald Jugenheimer of Lisbon R.D. 3, Eddie James Moore of Glenmoor, Roland Rice of Wellsville R. D. 1, William Cain of 303 Market St., Cecil Fletcher of 544 Florida Ave., Chester, and Dale Morrell of 178 Indiana Ave., Chester. The crews operate with three trucks.

The system provides customers with Channels 2, 3, 4, 7, 9, 13, 16, 21, 27 and 33, plus the weather station, a $6,000 piece of equipment and television camera at the Pleasant Heights building which shows the current temperature, humidity, wind direction and velocity, time and date along with various messages.

Hales said plans call for FM music as a background on the weather station.

The building also houses a $2,000 programmer device which automatically suspends various programs on certain stations which the Federal Communications Commission has ruled must be protected from duplication by telecasts in other cities.

The local system, for example, is included in the Steubenville viewing area by the FCC, and to protect Channel 9 at Steubenville the programmer must blank out any other station carrying the same network telecast.

The rate for subscribers in East Liverpool is $4.50 a month if paid within 10 days after receipt of bills. A 25-cent penalty is added if not paid before the deadline.

New News Post Taken By Van Dine At WSTV

Wayne Van Dine, veteran WSTV-TV newsman and sports director, has been named newscaster for Channel 9's 11 p.m. news, according to an announcement by Ted Eiland, vice president and general manager of the Rust Craft station at Steubenville.

Although he has been serving as sports director for some five years, Van Dine has always had his own regular news program, a regular weather show and has devoted more than half of his time as one of the station's principal reporter-photographers.

With a background of almost 10 years in covering news and sports events on both radio and TV in the upper Ohio Valley, Wayne also serves as on-the-air correspondent in this area for KDKA Radio.

An expert golfer, Van Dine is a regular participant in the annual Ham-Am Golf Tournament in Pittsburgh and has a first-name relationship with many of the top news figures in the tri-state region.

His on-the-air interviews range from the late President Kennedy, President Johnson and other top political leaders to

WQED--'A 20th-Century Pioneer'

Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Television is a composite title of two associated television stations located in Pittsburgh.

They are WQED, Channel 13, a very high frequency outlet, and WQEX, Channel 16, an ultra high frequency channel.

WQED often is referred to as a "Twentieth Century Pioneer" since going on the air on April 1, 1954.

It is the first community-sponsored and supported educational television station in the world. Now, also, reference is made to WQEX's pioneering as it was the first UHF station to become allied with a VHF station, in the same organization.

WQEX also has the distinction of introducing a new concept in educational training to business, industry and to the professions of medicine and nursing.

THESE STATIONS are located in an old 1890 stone-covered, former church manse at the corner of 5th and Bellefield Aves. in Oakland, Pittsburgh's cultural and civic center.

Standing on land cleared by pioneers who founded Pittsburgh more than 200 years ago, "the stations carry over to our time the idea that pioneering is never out of date, but more challenging as years change backgrounds and the constantly developing minds of men more deeply search for knowledge."

In June 1951, talk of bringing to Pittsburgh the first community-organized educational television station began in the office of Mayor David L. Lawrence, later governor of Pennsylvania.

Included in various preliminary community meetings were leaders in business, industry and civic associations, PTA's, and the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Lawrence began his meetings shortly after the Federal Communications Commission had announced a plan to reserve approximately 200 television channels for non-commercial, educational purposes. A year later, on April 13, 1952, the FCC did set aside 242 channels for educational television.

LAWRENCE set up a special committee of 18 Pittsburgh educators, with Dr. Alfred W. Beattie, former superintendent of Allegheny County Schools, as chairman, and Mrs. James H. Elkus, a member of the mayor's original committee, as secretary.

This special committee completed groundwork for the actual establishment of an educational television station in Pittsburgh. Later, Dr. Beattie requested the assistance of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development for his committee.

The civic educational television founders were faced with many major decisions — such as where to locate a station, the selection of programming, but most of all — where would the finances come from for the continuing operation.

This is where the Allegheny Conference cooperated and obtained the station's first foundation funds — $150,000 from the Ford Foundation provided there were matching funds. These were given by the Arbuckle-Jamison Foundation and the A. W. Mellon Educational and Charitable Trust — $100,000 each.

WQED WAS incorporated Feb. 13, 1953, and on May 13, 1953, a construction application was granted by the FCC following the filing of this application on April 9, 1953, by the mayor's special committee.

The nine incorporators of the Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Television Station were Dr. Alfred W. Beattie, a member of the mayor's original committee; George R. Craig, Pittsburgh attorney; Dr. Earl A. Dimmick, former superintendent of Pittsburgh public schools; Leon Falk Jr., Pittsburgh industrialist; the late Dr. Rufus H. Fitzgerald, former chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh; C. Nicely Hanner, superintendent of Armstrong County schools; George D. Lockhart, Pittsburgh attorney; J. T. Ryan Jr., business executive, and Leland Hazard, director — consultant of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

WQED'S CALL letters QED (added to the W, the assigned call letter for this area) are taken from the Latin phrase Quod Erat Demonstratum ("which was to be demonstrated").

The Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. provided the tower for the antenna. This established a pattern for cooperation between WQED and the commercial television and radio outlets in Pittsburgh.

During the annual fund drive for WQED, for instance, all tri-state stations donate public service air time to promote the drive for educational television. On Dec. 7, 1964, the new 316-kilowatt, full-power transmitter was dedicated by WQED officials and staff members.

This new transmitter provides a sharper, more clearly-defined picture for the tri-state viewers to a radius of 75 miles. Grants from federal and state governments, totalling $216,000, made possible the new transmitter.

WQED is a community educational station which operates as a non-profit organization.

The administration of the station is vested in a Board of Directors, with representation from many fields, and a professional staff of approximately 90 people headed by the president. Volunteers serve as office assistants, speakers and campaigners, and also partake of training workshops in the WQED studios.

Comedy To Reign In New Program Of Garry Moore

Eight comedy performers, several of whom will be getting their first major network television exposure, have been signed for multiple appearances on "The Garry Moore Show," which made its debut last Sunday from 9 to 10 in color.

Jackie Vernon and John Byner, two of the "veterans" among the comedians who will appear with Moore and Durward Kirby, are "Talent Scouts" alumni and are among the fastest-rising current comics. A third is "The Old Philosopher," Eddie Lawrence.

The other five are Patsy Elliott, a young comedienne spotted by Garry when he emceed a "night of new faces" for the New York chapter of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences; Carol Corbett, a former commercial artist who has conducted her own local children's television show in New York; Dick Davey, an Arkansas humorist who was propelled into his career as an entertainer by the success of an amateur night appearance at Harlem's famed Apollo Theater; Ron Carey, whose comedy characterizations range from a Roman emperor to a clergyman at a fund-raising dinner, and Pete Barbotti, bearded musician - turned - comedian who has headlined at such night clubs as the Copacabana in New York and the Sands in Las Vegas.

The accent on comedy in "The Garry Moore Show" will have the benefit of the expert wit of six of television's top writers, Gary Belkin, Art Baer and Ben Joelson, George Foster and Bob Booker and Sheldon Keller.

'Dizzy' To Help Bring Japanese All-Star Contest

Ex-baseball great Dizzy Dean, whose fame as a baseball commentator is not founded on his proper usage of the English language, will—in his own inimitable style—help Jim McKay describe Japanese baseball for American TV fans.

The Japanese All-Star Baseball Game, an annual ABC Sports feature since 1961, will be televised in color on "ABC's Wide World of Sports" Saturday from 1:30 to 4 p.m., along with a colorcast of the National Drag Racing Championships from Indianapolis.

The ballplayers — including former U.S. major leaguers Jim Baumer of the Cubs and Reds, currently hitting over 300 in Japan, and the Giants' Carl Boles (294) — will represent such teams as the Pacific League's Osaka Hawks, Fukuoka Lions, Tokyo Flyers, Tokyo Orions, Osaka Braves and Osaka Buffaloes, and the Central League's Nagoya Dragons, Hiroshima Carp, Osaka Tigers, Tokyo Atoms and Kawasaki Whales.

Another American, Jack Bloomfield, (298), will be playing with the Pacific League All-Stars for the sixth consecutive year. The "hottest" All-Star in the game is a Central League rookie pitcher, 18-year-old Tsuneo Horiuchi, who is unbeaten in 10 decisions.

Jean Connelly Show Moves To New Time

"The Jean Connelly Show" will be telecast at a new time — 12:30 p.m. — beginning Sept. 19 on WTAE-TV, Channel 4.

Mrs. Connelly has appeared on Channel 4 for the last eight years. Unlike the traditional "women's chatter" program, WTAE's women's director strives to keep her popular half-hour daily program flexible in format and appealing to both men and women.

A NEW SITUATION COMEDY of an ambitious young executive whose professional advancement is blocked by his lack of a wife makes its debut tonight in color at 8:30. Michael Callan and Patricia Harty co-star.

WTAE 'Weather Girl' Turns To News Beat

Eleanor Schano, identified for the past several years as WTAE-TV's "weather girl," is extending her talents to news reporting for Channel 4.

Miss Schano's on-the-spot interviews may be seen on Channel 4's regular news shows. She will be on general assignment. Although she will not be seen on her former 12:25 p.m. weathercast — to allow her more time for news reporting — she will continue to give the daily weather report at 6:25 p.m.

"The Jackie Gleason Show," starring "Mr. Saturday Night" himself and spotlighting the return of "The Honeymooners" as a periodic presentation will premiere in color for its fifth season next Saturday from 7:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Gleason will be reunited for the classic Honeymooners shows with Al Carney, who will play Ed Norton, that lovable but bumbling sewer - worker pal of Ralph Kramden (Gleason). Also starring will be Sheila MacRae as Alice Kramden and Jane Kean as Trixie Norton.

"The Honeymooners" will be presented as full - hour programs, either as musical comedy versions or straight comedies. Ten color Honeymooners shows have been scheduled for the 1966-67 season.

For the third consecutive year, "The Jackie Gleason Show" will originate in Miami Beach, Fla.

In addition to Carney, Sheila MacRae and Miss Kean, popular favorites of the Gleason show will return for the new season. Back again will be the June Taylor dancers, Sammy Spear and his orchestra (enlarged to 33 men) Gleason Girls Greta Randall, Lanita Kent, Judy Jordan, Pat Sandy and Carol Landrie, and announcer Johnny Olsen. The full portfolio of unforgettable Gleason characters will again be featured throughout the 1966-67 season.

New Musketeers Handle Roles As Undercover Men

"Jericho," new action - adventure series about three young men assigned to carry out dangerous undercover work for the Allies during World War II will make its debut in color Thursday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Don Francks, Marino Mase and John Leyton star as the latterday "three musketeers," identified by the code word "Jericho." Francks plays Franklin Sheppard, an American captain in the U.S. Army City. Norman Felton is executive producer, David Victory is supervising producer and Stanley Niss is producer.

Force: Leyton appears as Nicholas Gage, a British Navy lieutenant.

The three men, brought together in the early years of the war as a highly-secret, highly-specialized unit, accept any challenge, take any risk, for the Allied cause. Their missions include espionage, sabotage, intelligence — anything that will help defeat the enemy.

"Jericho" was created by William Link and Richard Levinson in association with Merwin A. Block. The series is being produced by Arena Productions Inc., at M.G.M. Studios, Culver City. Norman Felton is executive producer, David Victory is supervising producer and Stanley Niss is producer.

A NEW COMEDY SHOW about the misadventures of a quartet of long-haired impoverished teen-age musicians is called "The Monkees." Peter Jones, Peter Tork, Micky Dolenz and Mike Nesmith bring a wild sense of humor and the verve of youth to the program.

TV Takes On 'International Look'

By JOAN CROSBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK — A Chinese expert in the art of gung-fu, a German soccer player who worked as a Montana cowboy, a Dutch student whose interest in psycho-drama got him in the theater, a French-Italian film and stage star, a Briton who was a pre-Beatle rock 'n' roll idol and a Canadian whose experience has ranged from singing in bars in Mexico to starring in a $650,000, one-performance Broadway disaster are among television newcomers.

Three of them — Britisher John Leyton, Canadian Don Francks and Italian-French Marino Mase (pronounced Mah-SAY) — are in the same series, CBS-TV's Jericho, about World War II cloak-and-dagger activities.

LEYTON, a blue-eyed blond, has a good chance of being this year's David McCallum. If the American teens do begin screaming as he appears, he has had the experience to handle it.

After studying drama and working in repertoire for seven years, Leyton was cast as a rock 'n' roll idol in a British television play. "As the character I was supposed to sing, and I asked if I could do it myself, since I am able to sing in tune — just."

A record of his song was released to coincide with the television show and within a week it was the No. 1 seller.

It was a role in the movie "The Great Escape" that got Leyton out of the singing trap and back to acting. He came to the United States "because it occurred to me that no one in the industry here had really heard of me."

MARINO MASE, very tall and darkly handsome, was born in Trieste to a French mother and an Italian father. He knows what he wants: "I want to be an international film star, and Los Angeles, Calif., U.S.A., is where you come if you want that."

He has appeared on the stage in Rome and also in "Between Two Worlds," a film which has won five critics' awards at five different film festivals.

"To become an important actor, one must have clear ideas and no illusions. When I started, I decided I would establish myself in Europe and then go to the U.S.A. I don't want to be misunderstood. I want to be a star not only for money, but so I will have the opportunity to choose scripts from all over the world."

DON FRANCKS, who had the title role in "Kelly," a lavish Broadway flop, is very well-known in his native Canada.

Francks, short, intense, tough-looking but sensitive and poetic, was sitting in his dressing room furnished in "early Salvation Army." He was reading from a journal he keeps, in which all his loves are prominently featured: his son Trane (named for jazz great John Coltrane) and daughter Sue, jazz music, nature and automobiles.

"I have owned 63 cars in my time. In this book are pictures of cars I would still like to own. One is a Bugatti Royale. There are only five of them left in the world."

HANS GUEGAST, a tall, suave, charming German of 25, plays a German officer in ABC-TV's Rat Patrol. In the pilot he was by far the most interesting actor and the best part of the script.

He came to America to study political science and economics on a track scholarship at Montana State University. "The only other German I knew in the U.S. was a rancher in Montana," Guegast said. So he worked as a cowboy, a professional soccer player, a bus boy, and a dish washer, and decided he wanted to be an actor.

ROBERT WOLDERS is easily the most glowing member of television's newcomers. As Erik Hunter in NBC-TV's Laredo, He was born in Rotterdam and came to America to attend the University of Rochester.

Blue Cross Eyes 10% Rate Boost In Pennsylvania

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania will seek at least a 10 per cent rate increase early in 1967 because of rising hospital costs.

President William H. Ford said Monday he looks for a 10 to 30 per cent increase in hospital costs next year, partly because of "much deserved raises for hospital employees."

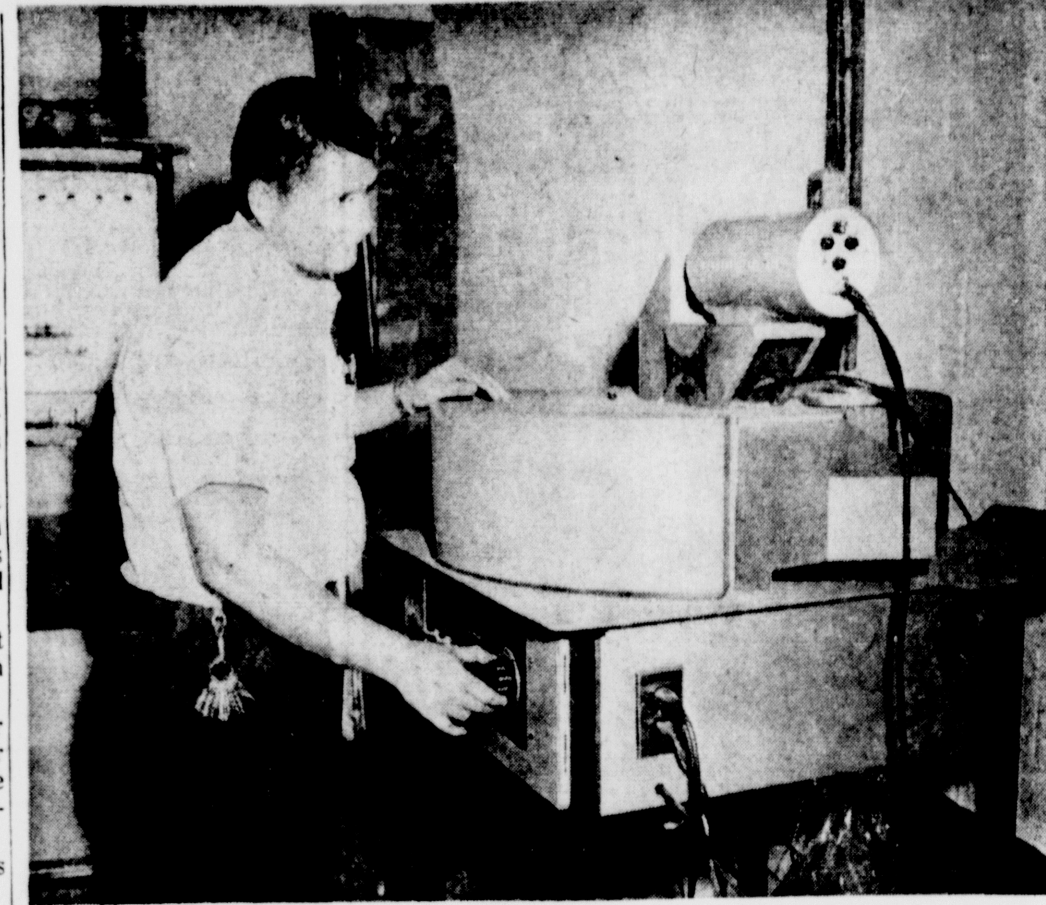

He said Blue Cross had a net loss of more than $4.5 million in the first half of 1966, but expects no further losses in the second half.

Ford described his 10 per cent hike prediction as "a minimum estimate."

Blue Cross received a 14.5 per cent rate hike in December 1965. Asked if he thinks the state will approve another increase, Ford said:

"They'll have to if Blue Cross is to continue to exist."

Ford's remarks were contained in a copyrighted story in today's Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

WEATHER STATION. Frank Neavin, head technician for CATV of Ohio Valley, adjusts controls of the automated weather station which provides information on wind, temperature, humidity and other conditions for cable customers by way of a special channel.

Frozen mixed vegetables make an excellent salad to serve with fish. Cook and drain the vegetables, then mix with French dressing, thin strips of onion and celery seeds. Chill and serve on lettuce.

Pack potato salad into a glass pie plate that slips into a "basket" holder. Garnish the top of the salad with wedges cut from canned pimiento and green pepper and you'll have a pretty "pie."

Marinate mushrooms (cooked or canned) in lemon juice to which seasoned salt, lemon juice and a suspicion of sugar and olive oil have been added and you'll have a good hors d'oeuvre for weightwatchers.

Use your electric blender to obtain a smooth mixture from creamstyle cottage cheese plus the addition of a little lemon juice and buttermilk; serve as "ersatz" sour cream to weightwatchers.

Entries for the 1967 Woman's International Bowling Congress, which begins next April 13 in Rochester, N. Y., will close on Jan. 20.

Jorge Velasquez, Don Brumfield and Bill Shoemaker each won three stakes races at the 1966 Monmouth Park thoroughbred meeting.

Panamanian Jorge Velasquez led the riders at the 1966 Monmouth Park racing meet with 75 winners, 16 more than runner up Charles Baltazar.

Penn State and Maryland have arranged football games for the next five years.

Beginning in 1967, Penn State will renew its football rivalry with Navy.

Clair Bee, former Long Island University basketball coach, is the athletic director at New York Military Academy, Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y.

J. Bowes Bond led the trainers at Monmouth Park this season with 21 winners, four more than runnerup Ray Metcalf.

WIIC Takes Part In NBC Parade

The most colorful and exciting season in its history has been launched by WIIC-TV, Channel 11, at Pittsburgh, with a total of 10 new network shows making their bow.

All shows, both network and local, will be in color.

The first of the new NBC shows was Hey Landlord, a comedy. Also in the Sunday night lineup are the Bell Telephone Hour, Walt Disney's Wonderful World of Color and Bonanza. The Andy Williams Show also had its debut in its new 10 Sunday spot.

Monday saw the premiere of three other shows. They are The Monkees at 7:30, Roger Williams at 8:30 and Road West at 9. Monday also is the new night for I Dream of Jeannie (8 p.m.), with Run for Your Life remaining in its 10 p.m. spot.

Monday through Friday standbys include the Huntley-Brinkley Report at 7 and the Tonight Show starring Johnny Carson at 11:30.

Other NBC shows to premiere on WIIC-TV include The Girl From U.N.C.L.E. (7:30) and Occasional Wife (8:30) on Tuesday; Star Trek (8:30) and The Hero (9:30) on Thursday, and Tarzan (7:30) and T.H.E. Cat (9:30) on Friday.

Locally originated WIIC-TV shows, all in color, will be a blend of daytime entertainment and evening movies and wrestling, with emphasis throughout on news, sports and weather.

Daytime news shows, Monday through Friday, will be at 7:25 a.m., 8:25 and the half-hour Noon News with Herb Koster and Pat Kiely. Evening newscasts, Monday through Sunday, will be at 6 and 11.

Providing up-to-the-minute news coverage will be WIIC-TV's award-winning news staff — Adam Lynch, Alan Boal, Herb Koster, Pat Kiely, Ron Jaye and Dave James, with Red Donley covering sports and weather and By Williams with weather.

Monday-through-Friday daytime shows include Hot Line With Ron Jaye at 9 a.m., Give It a Whirl with Steve Rizen at 1 p.m. and the Big Show with By Williams at 4:25. The Big Show will feature movies and a new Match It viewer participation game.

On Saturdays, Chuck Brinkman will emcee Come Alive, a young adult dance show at 12:30 p.m. Bill Cardille will host Studio Wrestling at 6:30 p.m. and Chiller Theater at 11:20 p.m.

WIIC-TV will continue its sports and special events coverage, with the World Series, AFL football, the Bowl Games, the Gemini and Apollo space programs and the 1966 elections.

Unreasonable Reason

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Being mad at your wife is no excuse for stealing. Judge J. C. Duvall ruled in a case here. A man charged with the theft of two tires said in County Criminal Court he took them because he was mad at his wife. "If everybody who got mad at his wife went out and stole something," remarked the judge, "there wouldn't be 15 cents worth of property left in Tarrant County tomorrow."

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 13, 256th day of 1966. There are 109 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1814, Ft. McHenry on the Chesapeake Bay was bombarded by the British fleet. During this engagement, Francis Scott Key, a Baltimore lawyer, detained aboard a British warship, wrote the "Star-Spangled Banner," our National Anthem.

On this date: In 1788, Congress made New York the capital city of the nation.

In 1940, President Franklin D. Roosevelt nominated Jesse Jones to be secretary of commerce.

In 1943, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek was elected president of China.

In 1945, President Harry S. Truman hailed the 85th birthday of Gen. John Pershing and described him as a great American.

Ten years ago — Democratic presidential nominee, Adlai Stevenson, formally opened his campaign in a nationally televised speech. He attacked President Eisenhower, during the speech, calling him, in his words, "A part-time president."

Five years ago — President Kennedy suggested that the presence of U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at the opening of the U.N. General Assembly session would provide the opportunity for serious talk about problems of mutual interest, namely the Berlin crisis.

One year ago — Secretary of State Dean Rusk revealed that American troop strength in South Viet Nam had passed the 125,000 mark set as a goal by President Johnson the previous July.

KDKA Kicks Off Its New Season

A bright new season on KDKA - TV, Channel 2, Pittsburgh, was kicked off literally last Saturday night when the arrival of major fall programming was signaled by coast-to-coast broadcast of the National Football League game between the Baltimore Colts and the Green Bay Packers at Milwaukee.

This marked the start of an exciting year of outstanding entertainment on the CBS-TV Network, of which KDKA - TV is a major market affiliate.

There will be nine new series in the premiere week: "It's About Time," "The Garry Moore Show," "Run, Buddy, Run," "Family Affair," "The Jean Arthur Show," "Jericho," "Pistols 'n' Petticoats," "Mission: Impossible" and "The CBS Friday Night Movies."

THREE continuing shows will move to new times - "Gilligan's Island" to 7:30 - 8 p.m. on Mondays, "I've Got A Secret" to 10:30-11 p.m. on Mondays, and "Gomer Pyle" to 9:30-10 p.m. on Wednesdays. And on every evening of the week, the regular program lineup will be in color throughout.

Arthur Miller's "The Crucible" and Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie," great dramas of our time, will be presented as individual two-hour special in color. Other important specials are Emlin Williams' internationally acclaimed reading of Charles Dickens, Sir John Gielgud's production of Chekhov's "Ivanov" and "S. Hurok Presents," starring many of the world's leading concert performers.

Peabody Award - winning Charlie Brown will be returning, as will more true sagas of the National Geographic Society and the New York Philharmonic Young People's Concerts. Dr. Seuss will bring to television the animated story of "How the Grinch Stole Christmas."

STARRING in their own specials will be such performers as Jim Nabors, Carol Burnett, Red Skelton, Lucille Ball, Barbara Streisand and Dick Van Dyke. The specials calendar also includes the Miss U.S.A., Miss Universe and Miss Teen-Age America convocations, the return of "The Nutcracker" ballet, "The Wizard of Oz," "Cinderella" and various holiday parades and other special events.

The new shows this season were ushered in last Sunday with the premiere of "It's About Time" 7:30-8 p.m. Frank Aletter and Jack Mullaney play the world's first backward astronauts, who manage to pilot their spaceship back into the prehistoric era, where they encounter a tribe of cavemen, including Imogene Coca and her primitive spouse, Joe E. Ross.

Also premiering that night was "The Garry Moore Show," 9-10, immediately after Ed Sullivan. On Monday, "Run, Buddy, Run" from 8-8:30 p.m. stars Jack Sheldon in the title role.

LATER that evening, from 9:30-10 p.m., the spotlight shines on "Family Affair," which finds Brian Keith cast as an affluent bachelor, Sebastian Cabot as his impeccable British manservant and three children small boy-and-girl twins and a teen-age girl as the constant challenge to the peace of mind of the gentleman and the gentleman's gentleman.

Immediately following, at 10:30 p.m., one of the great ladies of Hollywood will be seen in her first television series, "The Jean Arthur Show." Miss Arthur plays a lawyer, whose son is also a lawyer. The son played by Turtle Creek's Ron Harper, doesn't always agree with his mother's lighthearted approach to life, and the resultant comedy reveals the light touch for which Miss Arthur is so justly famous.

On Thursday the new show is "Jericho," 7:30-8:30 p.m. Don Francks, John Leyton and Marino Mase play a trio of Allied counter - intelligence agents in World War II, whose adventures exploits behind enemy

IT'S STORY TIME. Brian Keith, starring as a bachelor engineer, reads to Anissa Jones, who plays one of the three orphans he "inherits," in "Family Affair," a new comedy series which made its debut last night, from 9:30 to 10. Listening in the background is Sebastian Cabot, who co-stars in the series as Keith's "Man Friday."

lines are carried out under the code name, Jericho.

FRIDAY'S new series will be "The CBS Friday Night Movies." Together with "The CBS Thursday Night Movies," it will draw upon a treasury of major motion picture successes which includes such films as "The Music Man," "Breakfast at Tiffany's," "Bye Bye Birdie," "Fail Safe," "Good Neighbor Sam," "Lilies of the Field," "The Pleasure of His Company," "PT 109," "A Raisin in the Sun" and "Two for the Seesaw."

Saturday's new shows are "Pistols 'n' Petticoats" and "Mission: Impossible." The outskirts of a town named Wretched, Colo., would hardly seem to be the place you'd find the likes of Ann Sheridan, but that's where you'll see the beautiful star of so many Hollywood triumphs as she, Ruth McDevitt and Douglas V. Fowley portray the most amazing family in the old West in "Pistols 'n' Petticoats," 8:30-9:00 p.m.

The more modern world of globe - girdling undercover work of "Mission: Impossible," 9:00-10:00 p.m. Steven Hill as the agent who heads the Impossible Missions Force, with a crew of experts ranging from sultry Barbara Bain to electronic whiz Greg Morris, strong man Peter Lupus and impersonator Martin Landau.

3 Popular Programs

Appear At New Time

Three popular CBS-TV Network programs will be seen in different time periods for the new season on KDKA-TV.

"Gomer Pyle" will move over to Wednesdays at 9:30 p.m., "Gilligan's Island" to Mondays at 7:30 p.m. and "I've Got A Secret" to Mondays at 10:30 p.m.

Although the shows will be seen in new periods, none of the familiar faces will be changed. Jim Nabors continues in the title role of "Gomer," "Gilligan" still is Bob Denver and "I've Got A Secret" retains the veteran panel of Bess Myerson, Betsy Palmer, Bill Cullen and Henry Morgan, with Steve Allen as emcee.

Don't forget about finnan haddie. That smoked fish is as good today as it was years ago when it was in highest favor. To cook finnan haddie, just put it in a big skillet and add water to cover; bring to a boil and drain the fish. Add fresh water to cover once more and then, after bringing to a boil, simmer - covered for about 15 minutes. Serve with butter-parley sauce.

Gaddis To Bring Fishing Spots To Sportsmen Again

R. Vernon "Gadabout" Gaddis, who parlayed his hobbies of flying, fishing and photography into a lifetime of fishing fun and fortune, returns to WTAE-TV for the second consecutive year as "The Flying Fisherman," a weekly half-hour in full color each Sunday at 3:30 p.m. beginning Sept. 18.

In "The Flying Fisherman," Gaddis explores a different fishing area of North America each week. He avoids plush clubs and costly resorts, goes only where the average angler can afford to go.

His films provide not only expert information for the amateur angler, but also a colorful tour of many of the continent's loveliest areas.

If you prefer, you can poach salmon steaks in the oven instead of over surface heat. Arrange the steaks in a single layer in a shallow baking dish and about a cup of water and seasonings; cover (with foil, if necessary) and bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for about 25 minutes, basting once.

Cooking Hints

Whipped dry milk to which instant coffee and non - caloric sweetener is added makes a dessert "fluff" for calorie-counters.

pass the cinnamon shaker and nutmeg grinder and let family and guests add their own spice - or pass it up.

It's a good idea to add only sugar to homemade applesauce; green grapes for a delicious salad or dessert.

Tucker's Set For Steelers' Games Again

Veteran sports broadcaster Joe Tucker, who has been the voice of the Pittsburgh Steelers pro football games every year since 1936, returns this fall for his 31st season as play-by-play announcer of the Steeler games of the National Football League.

Lowell Perry, former Steeler coach and scout, will team up with him as analyst.

Tucker was born Dec. 23, 1909, in Hirsh, Saskatchewan, Canada, and became a naturalized United States citizen in April 1936. His first broadcast on radio was in an oratorical contest in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, in 1927.

He became a sports broadcaster for WWSW, independent radio station in Pittsburgh, in September 1936, covering baseball, football (college, pro and high school), hockey, basketball, boxing, tennis, polo, auto racing, golf, six-day bicycle racing, rodeos and wrestling.

Tucker announced the Pittsburgh Hornet hockey games from 1936 to 1956, the Duquesne University basketball games from 1936 to 1958, and was third man on the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball - broadcasting team from 1938 to 1956.

In October 1951 he was the voice on the first regularly-scheduled NFL game televised from Comiskey Park (Pittsburgh vs. Chicago Cardinals.) In 1956 he was radio announcer of the NFL championship game between the New York Giants and the Chicago Bears.

In 1960, Tucker was honored as the Tri-State Athletic Association Sportsman of the Year. In 1961, he received the Distinguished Service to Football award during the annual awards banquet of the Pittsburgh Curstone Coaches chapter of the National Foundation Hall of Fame. In 1962, he received a special award for his many contributions to sports at the annual Dapper Dan banquet. In 1966, he was honored by the Optimist Club of Pittsburgh for outstanding service to the community.

In 1955, Sam Boulmetis set a record by winning 81 races during the Monmouth Park thoroughbred meeting at Oceanport, N. J.

Food 'Paradise' Discovered For Cast Of 'Patrol'

Whereas it is said that the rain in Spain lies mainly on the plain, as far as the stars of ABC-TV's new action-adventure "The Rat Patrol," now filming in southern Spain, are concerned, the fine food in Spain abounds mainly in the area surrounding Almeria.

Currently battling the heat, dust, sand and winds in the rugged terrain of Tabernas and Cabo de Gato, near this Mediterranean seaport, are Chris George, Gary Raymond, Hans Gudegast, Larry Casey and Justin Tarr.

George now takes over as gastronomic spokesman: "The food — the meats, the sauces, the wines, the oranges, the fish — are all in the fantastic Andalusian tradition. And after a month here, I find that I'm really in need of the exercise entailed in shooting the series. The food is murder and the food is great!

"I recall seeing this soup item on a couple of menus in restaurants back in the states where 'exotic' delicacies are featured. In Almeria, it is everywhere, it is always made differently and it is always made beautifully."

Full NFL Coverage Set

The National Football League games again will be covered by CBS-TV.

Production innovations designed to afford viewers a more complete and dynamic picture of the action will make the grid season even more enjoyable for America's armchair quarterbacks.

The regular season got under way with a night game last Saturday between Green Bay and Baltimore which was broadcast coast to coast.

Other games will be broadcast nationwide on the nights of Monday, Oct. 31, and Thanksgiving night, Nov. 24. Afternoon games on Thanksgiving Day and on Saturdays, Dec. 10 and 17, also will be broadcast on the full network.

IN ADDITION, "NFL—Countdown to Kickoff" will return for its third season and will be broadcast in color. The full-hour series will be presented on 16 consecutive Saturday afternoons (4-5 p.m.) starting last Saturday.

Each week the series will originate in a different NFL city and will incorporate interviews, features and a preview of the games scheduled for that week.

end, using action highlights. A different sports commentator will anchor each program.

On a typical Sunday afternoon, some 12,000 miles of telephone cable and 50 switching centers arrange some 200 television stations into 15 separate "football" networks.

Mobile television studios, with their complex assortment of audio and visual transmission equipment, including 49 cameras (seven to each stadium), are dispatched to the seven game sites. More than 50 special interconnected "open" telephones are installed, so that all key personnel can be kept informed of what is happening at all times in each game.

A TOTAL of 300 people — producers, directors, associate directors, production assistants, engineers, cameramen, technicians and commentators — all well-briefed in their specific assignments, begins work on the preceding Friday, when they start setting up the equipment at the stadiums.

Two video tape machines also will be employed at each NFL contest. One will capture isolated-camera action and the second will record normal broadcast coverage of the game. This will provide taped first-half highlights to be shown during the half-time intermission and second-half highlights which can be broadcast during the post-game show.

The CBS stop action, another innovation last season by the network, will be used again this year. This permits the director to replay instantaneously any game action, stopping and starting at any point during the play.

Shrimp Wiggle — cream sauce, cooked shrimp and green peas — is good enough for a company lunch if you make the sauce with light cream and enrich it with an egg yolk or two.

Mash a small wedge of blue cheese or Roquefort and add it to mayonnaise thinned with buttermilk for a quick and easy salad dressing for wedges of lettuce and sliced tomatoes.

Ever add minced anchovy fillets (drained) to French dressing for a tossed salad? Just make sure the dressing you use does not contain sugar.

Ex-Army Ace To Assist In 'Grid-Casts'

Bob Anderson, outstanding Army halfback in 1957-58-59, will provide color commentary on regional telecasts of NCAA football games aired by ABC-TV. It has been announced by Boone Arledge, vice president and executive producer of ABC Sports.

Anderson will do color for six regional games on Oct. 15, Oct. 22, Oct. 29, Nov. 5, Nov. 12 and Nov. 19. On each of these dates, ABC will telecast four regional games to different sections of the country.

Anderson, an All-American, was a regular halfback for three years. The 1958 team on which he played finished with an unbeaten record and was ranked second in the country behind LSU. As a sophomore, Anderson gained national attention when he streaked 82 yards for a touchdown against Notre Dame in the first meeting between the two schools in 11 years.

He was graduated from West Point in 1960. He resigned from the Army in 1963 and played with the New York Giants. He was released from the Giants in 1964, after a knee injury ended his playing days.

Anderson then worked in private industry for a year, but then quit to open a restaurant in New York with Phil Linz, of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Washing soda may do a good job in cleaning glazed ceramic wall tile. If the tiles are badly discolored, wipe the tiles with a damp rag on which a little of the powdered material has been sprinkled.

WTRF Will Offer 'Romper School' Starting Monday

Parents throughout the tri-state area once again will be able to send their children of pre-school age to kindergarten every week day when "The Romper Room School" returns to WTRF-TV, Channel 7, Wheeling, Sept. 19.

At 9 a.m., Rosemarie Van Camp of Bellaire will step into the classroom as the new school marm of television's brightest half-hour for pre-schoolers.

Every two weeks, six local children will be in attendance in the studio at "Romper Room School." While these youngsters learn and play, the boys and girls at home, too, participate in games, activities and educational features which have been tested and approved by leading educators throughout the nation.

Mrs. Van Camp, a graduate of Ohio State University with a B.A. degree in English, is well qualified for her new role in television. Her experience in the broadcast field is wide and varied. Throughout the Ohio Valley, she has been a familiar on-the-air voice on women's shows, interview type shows, and news.

Mrs. Van Camp comes to Channel 7 from WWVA radio where she was continuity, production and public affairs director. Prior to that she has done broadcast work at WSIC, Statesville, N.C., and WHLL, Wheeling.

Liverpool!

Now, at last, you're able to enjoy clear, snow-free television reception... bright, life-like color and crisp black-and-white pictures on every channel brought in by the community antenna system. With the cable in, you're out of the "fringe area" for good. We think you'll be interested in the part played by Jerrold in bringing clear-vision TV to East Liverpool and Wellsville.

The quality of the pictures and sound you will now enjoy can never be better than that permitted by the quality of the signals placed on the cable at the head-end. The CATV of Ohio Valley system, with Jerrold equipment, guarantees that these signals will be the finest obtainable. The Jerrold Channel Commanders at the head-end (one for each off-the-air channel received) provide the precise control of individual channels to be transported via cable without interchannel interference.

Jerrold pioneered the first community antenna systems over fifteen years ago. Since that time Jerrold has remained the acknowledged leader in the industry, continuously developing the art to bring fine television entertainment to more and more communities throughout the nation. Today, Jerrold is a diversified electronics company serving the consumer, industrial, education and military markets. Jerrold antenna systems are found in schools, hospitals, military bases, apartment houses, hotels, and private homes across the land.

We welcome you to the growing family of communities enjoying crystal-clear TV pictures in areas once considered "out of bounds."
